WOMEN'S RIGHTS

Description of the Event:

Our constitution has given us many rights to survive with equality in this democracy. The right to information is one such constitutional human right. It is once said that human rights are women's rights and women's rights are human rights nothing more for men and nothing less for women. Unfortunately, many citizens of our nation are not aware of such rights and are being sprayed for the super-rational goals of the dominant society. Team KLEF-CEA is conducting an event that educates people on their basic rights on the eve of women's day.

Working Procedure:

1. This event was held on 5th February 2022 at Municipal High School, Mangalagiri.
2. Students from the BA-LLB faculty of our university along with their faculty mentors illustrated the right to information act and women's rights to the students at the school.
3. Real-World examples are used for a better understanding of the acts and are clearly explained. Every volunteer actively participated in making students acquire knowledge on the rights.

Benefits:

1. Students of the school are now aware of their rights as a citizen of a democratic society.
2. By knowing the women's rights, girls got an idea about the rights and sections that are in favour of them and can get the courage to raise their voice against violence.
