

Photocopying and Printing Service

The Central Library of KL University extends photocopying service of few pages of books, journal articles, and previous years' University question papers at a nominal charge. Students also avail printing services for making multiple copies of their assignments and project reports. For availing these services, the users should fill in the Photocopy/Printing Requisition Form. Photocopies are given free of cost for faculty and staff, provided if it is for official purpose approved by HOD/Dean and Registrar. While providing printing and photocopying copies, the Library adheres strictly to the provisions of Indian Copyright Act, 1957 as amended from time to time.
