

Date: 12-12-2019

Place: KLEF

Legal Literacy – Social Justice

KL Deemed to be University (Koneru Lakshmaiah Education Foundation) College of Law Unit- 11 National Service Scheme (NSS) has conducted Panel Discussion under “Legal Literacy – Social Justice” on 12th December 2019 at Moot Court Hall. KL College of Law on the contemporary issue of “Justice to Rape Victims”. The distinguished guest, Prof. L.Jayasree, Hod of the Dept (Ret.), ANU enlightened the gathering with Rape Laws in force in India and Prof. N.Rangaiah, Principal, KLEF College of Law, the eminent academician, who is well known for his valuable Government & Non-Government organizations addressed the group on The Role of Judiciary in Criminal Justice System in relation to Sexual Assaults in India.

Thirteen Faculty members of different Dept’s of KLU, Our NSS Volunteers and few students of College of Law actively participated in the Panel Discussion initiated by distinguished guest and formulated that, in the task of providing speedy justice to the rape victims, separate courts shall be established by the Government along with prescribing Limitation period for the speedy disposal of cases. The panel also found that value education shall be imparted in the curriculum of every field of study. It was also recommended for the amelioration of rehabilitative measures to be undertaken to reform the Rape accused.

No. of Volunteers Participated: 38

No. of faculty Participated: 02

Event Photos:

