2. LADY SECURITY GUARDS & VIGILANCE OFFICERS (BOTH LADIES & GENTS)

The Security Officer Help Desk and a separate Women's Help Desk operate 24/7 within the campus. The university's security is managed by the Office of Protection and Defense Security Services (OPDSS) with a team of 75 members, divided into three groups (A, B, and C) with 25 members each. These teams work on shifts around the clock to ensure continuous coverage for 24 hours. In addition to OPDSS, a group of 14 vigilance officers patrol the campus regularly. All students and faculty are required to wear ID cards and adhere to a dress code. In case of any incidents, student ID cards are used for quick identification and follow-up. Specifically near the girls' hostel, two lady security guards are stationed solely for security purposes.

Female security guards are actively overseeing the premises to ensure the safety of girls, maintaining continuous vigilance round the clock.

4. LADIES WAITING HALLS WITH VENDING MACHINES:

KLEF provides spacious and well-furnished waiting areas specifically tailored to meet the needs of female students. These halls create a comfortable and welcoming environment, often considered a second home by the students. If students become unwell during college hours, they are allowed to use these halls to rest and recuperate.

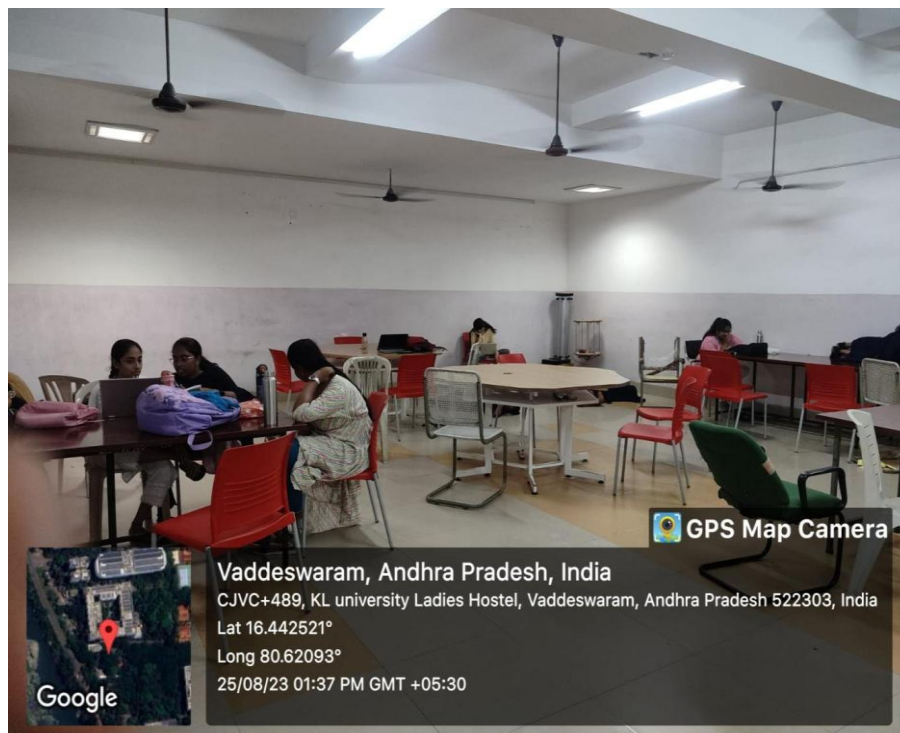

Ladies Waiting Hall at KLEF

Sanitary Vending Machines are available in all waiting Halls and Girl Hostel in KLEF.

Sanitary Vending Machines

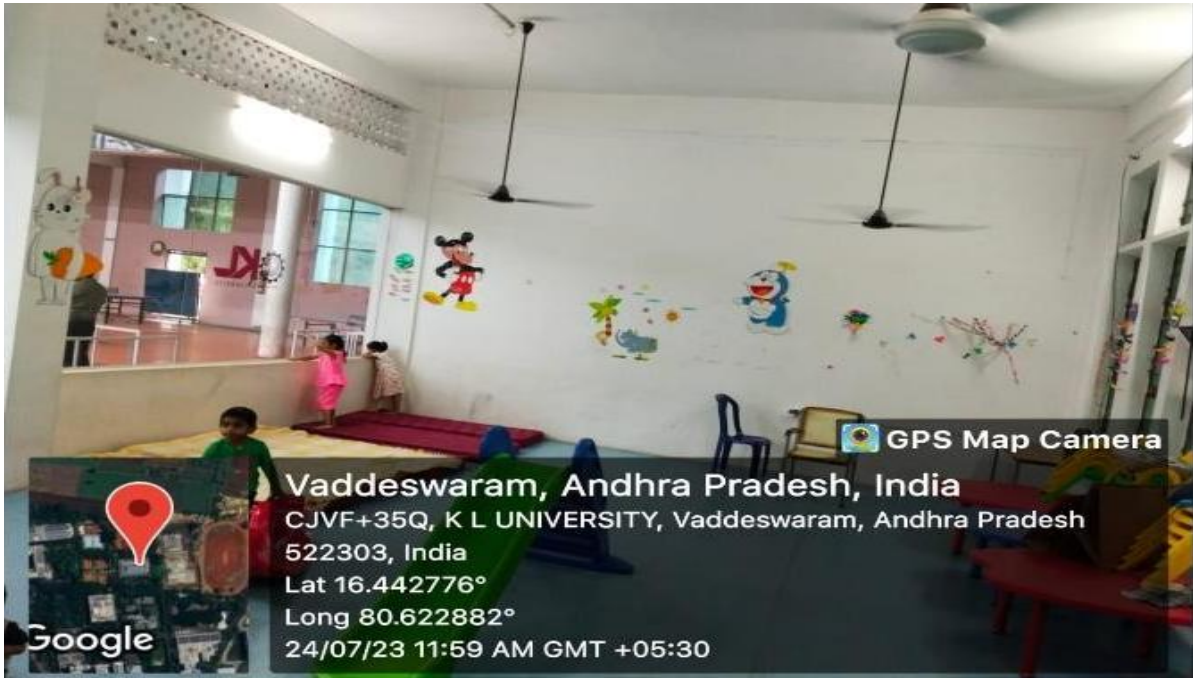

Girls Waiting Hall is spacious and well-furnished suited to meet the demands of the girl students.

All the waiting areas are designed to offer privacy to female students, allowing them to prepare for classes and attend them in a relaxed and rejuvenated state. Throughout the university, numerous waiting areas are located separately in each block and on every floor. These waiting areas are well-furnished with ample space and equipped with necessary amenities such as fans, chairs, tables, shelves, mirrors, and hand sanitizers to ensure the comfort of those using them.

5. DAY CARE CENTRE:

Day Care service for the children of teachers and research scholars is available on a paid basis, assisting working parents in balancing their professional or academic pursuits.

Day Care Centre is located at a child-friendly environment at KLEF

This day care facility caters not only to female employees, scholars, and students but also to male individuals whose wives work elsewhere. The centre is designed to create a child-friendly environment with large, colourful displays and activity centres equipped with play materials for independent play, as well as guided activities. It is situated in a glass room to allow for observation of the children's activities and is conveniently located near the indoor stadium to encourage physical activity among the children. Additionally, its proximity to the dispensary ensures quick access to medical care, with amenities like refrigerators and beds provided for food storage, medicine, and children's relaxation.

A trainer and caregiver are employed to support the development of children in various aspects. They are qualified and experienced in caring for infants and children. The facility is equipped with brain development activities, toys, a whiteboard, and indoor play tools to facilitate learning and engagement.

6. COUNSELING:

KLEF Support Services for the Student's also includes student counseling in three major areas for all the students.

- a. Counseling related to behavior and attitude–Personal Counseling
- b.. Counselling Related to Safety and Security
- c. Counselling Related to Career

a. Counseling related to behavior and attitude: Regularly, students exhibiting signs of depression or unusual behavior are identified and referred to the counseling cell (VALUE EDUCATION CELL), where they receive specialized counseling from psychologists or psychiatrists. If necessary, parents are also included in these counseling sessions.

b & c. Counseling related to Academics & Career: University faculty members play a crucial role in providing academic counselling services to students. Each faculty member serves as a counsellor for a group of 20 students, maintaining regular communication with parents regarding academic matters and sending academic reports by post. Students meet with their assigned counsellor weekly. Students struggling academically receive close monitoring and guidance to improve their performance. Each counsellor conducts a SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats) analysis with their students, discussing abilities, goals, and personal issues, and provides tailored counseling accordingly using an online portal.

Furthermore, a parent-teacher association is established in all departments, holding monthly meetings to address parental concerns and gather suggestions for improving student and parent satisfaction.

7. AWARENESS PROGRAMS:

KLEF Women Development Cell organizes Awareness program periodically on POSH ACT, Legal Rights for Women, Safety Security and Threat Awareness etc.,

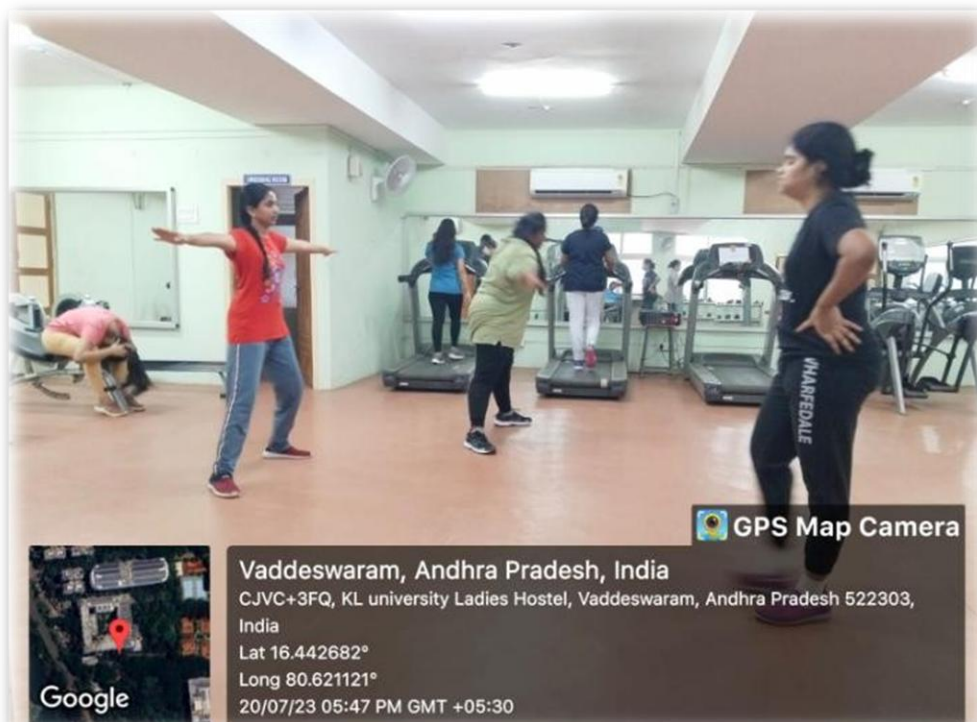

Mrs. Nirmal Geethamba addressing the gathering on legal rights for women on 21/09/2018

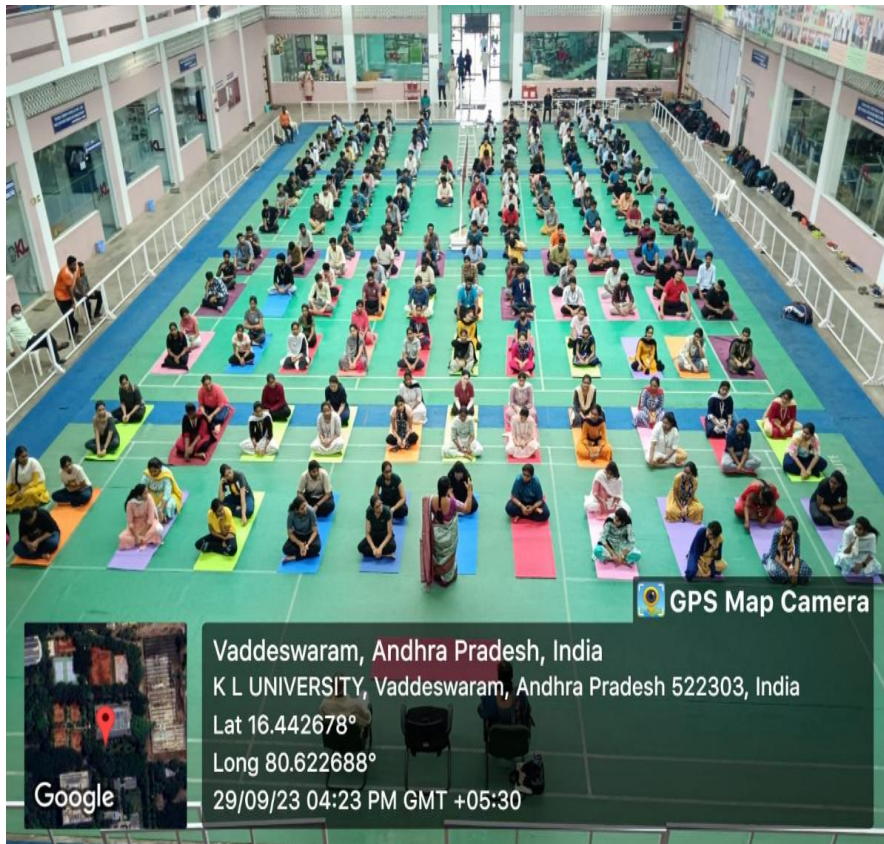

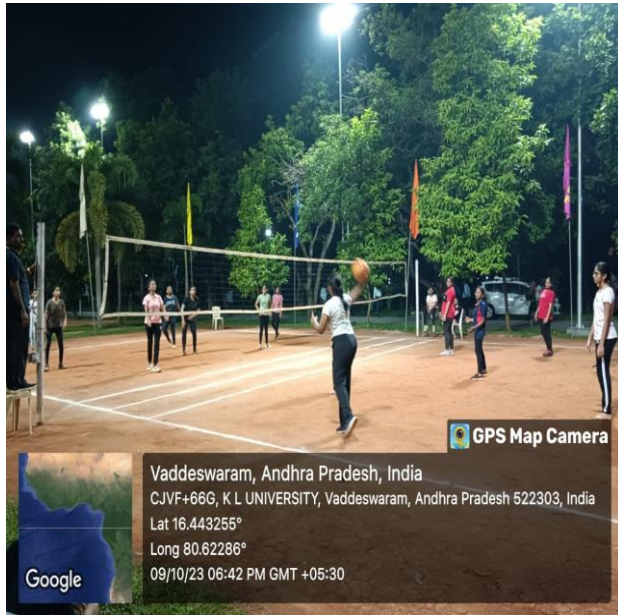

8. LADIES GYM:
