

Visit to Primary Agricultural Cooperative Society (PACS) on 28-09-2024

Objective of the visit event:

1. To study the Cooperative society system
2. To visit to progressive PACS and collect the data
3. Find out the agriculture finance activities of PACS in village
4. To Know About agriculture development and rural development activities by PACS in village

Description of the Event: This visit was taken up to progressive PACS, Nuttaki village, Mangalgiri, Guntur, on date 28-09-2024. All 2.1 Students were exposed to visit. The PACS located in rural area and doing the activities agricultural inputs like seeds, fertilizer, pesticide and Micronutrients. The PACS also providing the finance and insurance to farmers. PACS are formed in the village 20 years back, they are following rules of cooperative societies act. The members of the PACS are having share and voting power, every year they are doing meeting and election also. The farmer also availing the Agricultural inputs like fertilizers, pesticides and micronutrient in viable rate. The members and farmers both are taking loan up to 2 lakhs @6 % interest rate.

Outcome of the Event:

From this visit the student s observations in the following points of view:

- They will get knowledge of Cooperative societies system.
- The students get exposure to Cooperative finance and management of society.
- The visit will give clarity about activities of PACS in rural area.
- The students get to know the management in organisation like PACS
- Students get to know that resource allocation and financial management like water, land, labour and management in farm production.

Geo Tagged Photos/Photos with Date:

Group photo with 2.1 Years students

Taking information of Cooperative society and Finance and facilities provide by PACS