

K L E F

DEPT OF HOTEL MANAGEMENT

WORLD TOURISM DAY CELEBRATIONS SEP 27TH 2018

Department of Hotel Management celebrated "world tourism day " today September 27th at Jasmine hall from 10.00 am- 1.00 pm. The theme for this year was: Tourism & digital transformation.

Since our hotel industry is part of the tourism industry, to create awareness on world tourism and job opportunities for hotel management students all over the its imperative to promote tourism to improve our economy.

As part of the celebrations 7 competitions were conducted.

Open to All events : Essay competition, painting and Quiz

Only for BHM students : cookery, Mocktail, napkin folding and cake decoration were conducted from 25th onwards and prizes were distributed for the winners on 27th function.

Dr. Subba Rao Principal, College of Engineering and Prof.Habi bullah khan, Dean student affairs were the chief guests and they distributed prizes to the competition winners.

MR.Kalisha vali HOD of dept of hotel management facilitated the dignitaries and spoke about the world tourism day. Dr.G.Saravana kumar Associate professor who was the Event coordinator, made a power point presentation on World tourism scenario and Indian tourism. Mr.M.Pavan kumar Asst professor proposed vote of thanks. Students of I year Hotel management gave a performance of National integration for AR Rahman`s Jai ho song..!

Students from KLU Swara club performed some live songs with guitar and other instruments and entertained the students.