Description

Report on “WORKSHOP ON DEBATE & ORATORY”

Organized by: VersaTales Club, KL University, Vijayawada

Date: 19th September 2025

Venue: Rose Hall, KL University

The VersaTales Club of KL University successfully conducted an impactful and interactive session titled “Workshop on Debate & Oratory” on the 19th of September 2025. Held at Rose Hall, the event brought together enthusiastic students eager to refine their public speaking and debating skills. The session created a dynamic platform for learning, expression, and confidence-building among participants.

Objective:

The primary objective of the workshop was to enhance students’ debating and oratory skills. It aimed to:

- Strengthen critical thinking and argument-building abilities.
- Improve confidence in public speaking.
- Develop effective communication techniques and persuasive delivery.
- Encourage teamwork, listening skills, and respectful counter-arguments.

Event Highlights:

- Inaugural address by Faculty Incharge, Mr. Bikash Sharma, stressing the importance of debate and oratory in academic and professional growth.
- Introduction to debating formats (Oxford, Parliamentary, etc.) and techniques for constructing logical arguments.
- Oratory training sessions focusing on voice modulation, body language, and impactful speech delivery.
- Mock debates and speaking drills to provide hands-on practice.
- Feedback and evaluation session where participants received constructive suggestions for improvement.

Conclusion & Reflections:

- The workshop empowered students to voice their opinions confidently and persuasively.
- Participants gained practical exposure through live debates and exercises.
- The interactive format fostered collaboration, teamwork, and mutual respect.
- Students expressed enthusiasm to participate in future debating competitions and club events.
