Description

Report on Ministry Of Culture Art Event – Mana Samskruthi Art Exhibition at Vijayawada participation with 15 SAC students on 2nd Nov 2025.

1. Event Overview

Detail	Description
Event Title	Mana Samskruthi Art Exhibition
Organizer	Ministry of Culture
Date	November 2, 2025
Venue	Balotsav Bhavan
Theme	Celebrating the diverse cultural heritage and artistic traditions of Andhra Pradesh
Objective	To promote cultural exchange, creativity, and appreciation for the visual arts, showcasing the region's rich artistic expressions.

2. Exhibition Highlights

The Ministry of Culture successfully organized a vibrant and diverse art exhibition, "Mana Samskruthi," on November 2, 2025, at Balotsav Bhavan.

Artist Participation: The event featured the works of 70 talented artists from Andhra Pradesh.

Artistic Range: The exhibition presented a stunning range of painting styles, spanning from traditional to contemporary, each piece reflecting the deep-rooted artistic traditions and evolving modern expressions of the region.

Cultural Significance: The event served as a significant platform to highlight the rich cultural heritage of Andhra Pradesh and foster a greater appreciation for the visual arts among art enthusiasts and the general public.

3. Participation and Interactions

A delegation of 15 students from the SAC, KLEF Painting Club actively participated in the exhibition, enhancing their understanding and appreciation of Andhra art.

Key Interactions: The students had the valuable opportunity to interact with prominent dignitaries:

Smt. P. Tejaswini, Commissioner Chairperson

Sri Mandali Buddha Prasad , MLA

These interactions provided the students with inspiration and insights into the promotion and preservation of regional art.

4. Special Recognition and Felicitations

A special ceremony was held to honor contributions to the art community:

Award Recipient: Shri Sridhar Patnala, Faculty and Mentor of the SAC, KLEF Painting Club, was recognized for his outstanding work.

Felicitating Dignitary: Shri Patnala was felicitated and received an award from Sri Mandali Budda Prasad Garu, MLA.

Winning Work: The award was presented for his exceptional painting on Indian Vedic Culture, highlighting the importance of cultural themes in contemporary art.

5. Conclusion

The "Mana Samskruthi" Art Exhibition was a resounding success, achieving its goals of celebrating and promoting the artistic talent and rich cultural tapestry of Andhra Pradesh. The event successfully bridged the gap between traditional and modern artistic expressions, while also providing a valuable platform for the next generation of artists, as represented by the students of SAC, KLEF, to engage with established figures and art forms.
