

Report of Guest Lecture on “Information Security and Enterprise Programming” at CSE, KLEF on 26.08.2020.

Mr. Bandarupalli Venkata Ramana Programmer Analyst of Cognizant Technology Solutions India Pvt Ltd, Hyderabad, studied B.Tech CSE from our University and awarded as Silver medalist in 2015 for Securing 9.76 CGPA during his study. Mr. Venkata Ramana has presented a Guest Lecture on the Resent Trends on Information Security and Enterprise Programming Dated on 26.08.2020 through online mode. The students and staffs of II year CSE from Vaddeswaram and Hyderabad campus were participated and He has delivered various issues and opportunities available for the employability of the students.

In addition to his presentation he has added various scenario faced by him during his role in Cognizant Technology, including collecting application and technical details from application POCs, conducting review meeting for application demo walk through, understanding technical configuration, scanning the application for vulnerability and security to his respective teams. He has demonstrated macro trackers application in new process in place for faster on boarding of application. During his presentation he also elaborated model-lead, reviewing test data, scripting for multiple modules, testing tool to ensure enterprise programming capability and scalability. Finally he gave hands on session for testing requirements and various attacks.

Finally Dr.A. AbdulRahman, Alumni Coordinator/ CSE has delivered a vote of Thanks and summary of his valuable speech on the day of Presentation. He also added a great thankfulness to our Honorable president, Respectable Principal, Head of the Department and Ever green Students for their valuable supports during knowledge sharing program.

