

Report on NSS Outreach Program

Organized by KL School of Architecture, Vijayawada

Date of the Event: 15/8/2025

Introduction

On the occasion of Independence Day, KL School of Architecture, Vijayawada, organized an NSS Outreach Program at SKCV Prema Vihar Boys Home, Bhavanipuram, Vijayawada. The initiative aimed to celebrate the spirit of freedom while instilling values of empathy, service, and social responsibility in students. Faculty members, along with II, III, and IV-year students, actively participated in this meaningful engagement with the children.

Objectives of the Event

1. To celebrate Independence Day by spreading joy and togetherness with underprivileged children.
2. To provide a platform for students to understand the importance of empathy and community service.
3. To foster social responsibility and instill the spirit of volunteerism among students.
4. To build meaningful connections with the community through interactive activities.

Event Highlights & Activities

- Faculty and students conducted interactive sessions and fun-filled activities with the children.
- The celebration created a lively environment, where both students and children shared stories, games, and cultural activities.
- The initiative emphasized not only the significance of Independence Day but also the importance of giving back to society.

Outcomes of the Event

- Students experienced the joy of community engagement and developed a deeper sense of empathy.
- The children of SKCV Prema Vihar Boys Home felt included, celebrated, and motivated through the interaction.
- The initiative reinforced the role of future architects as socially responsible citizens.
- Independence Day was celebrated in its true essence — as a day of unity, compassion, and service.

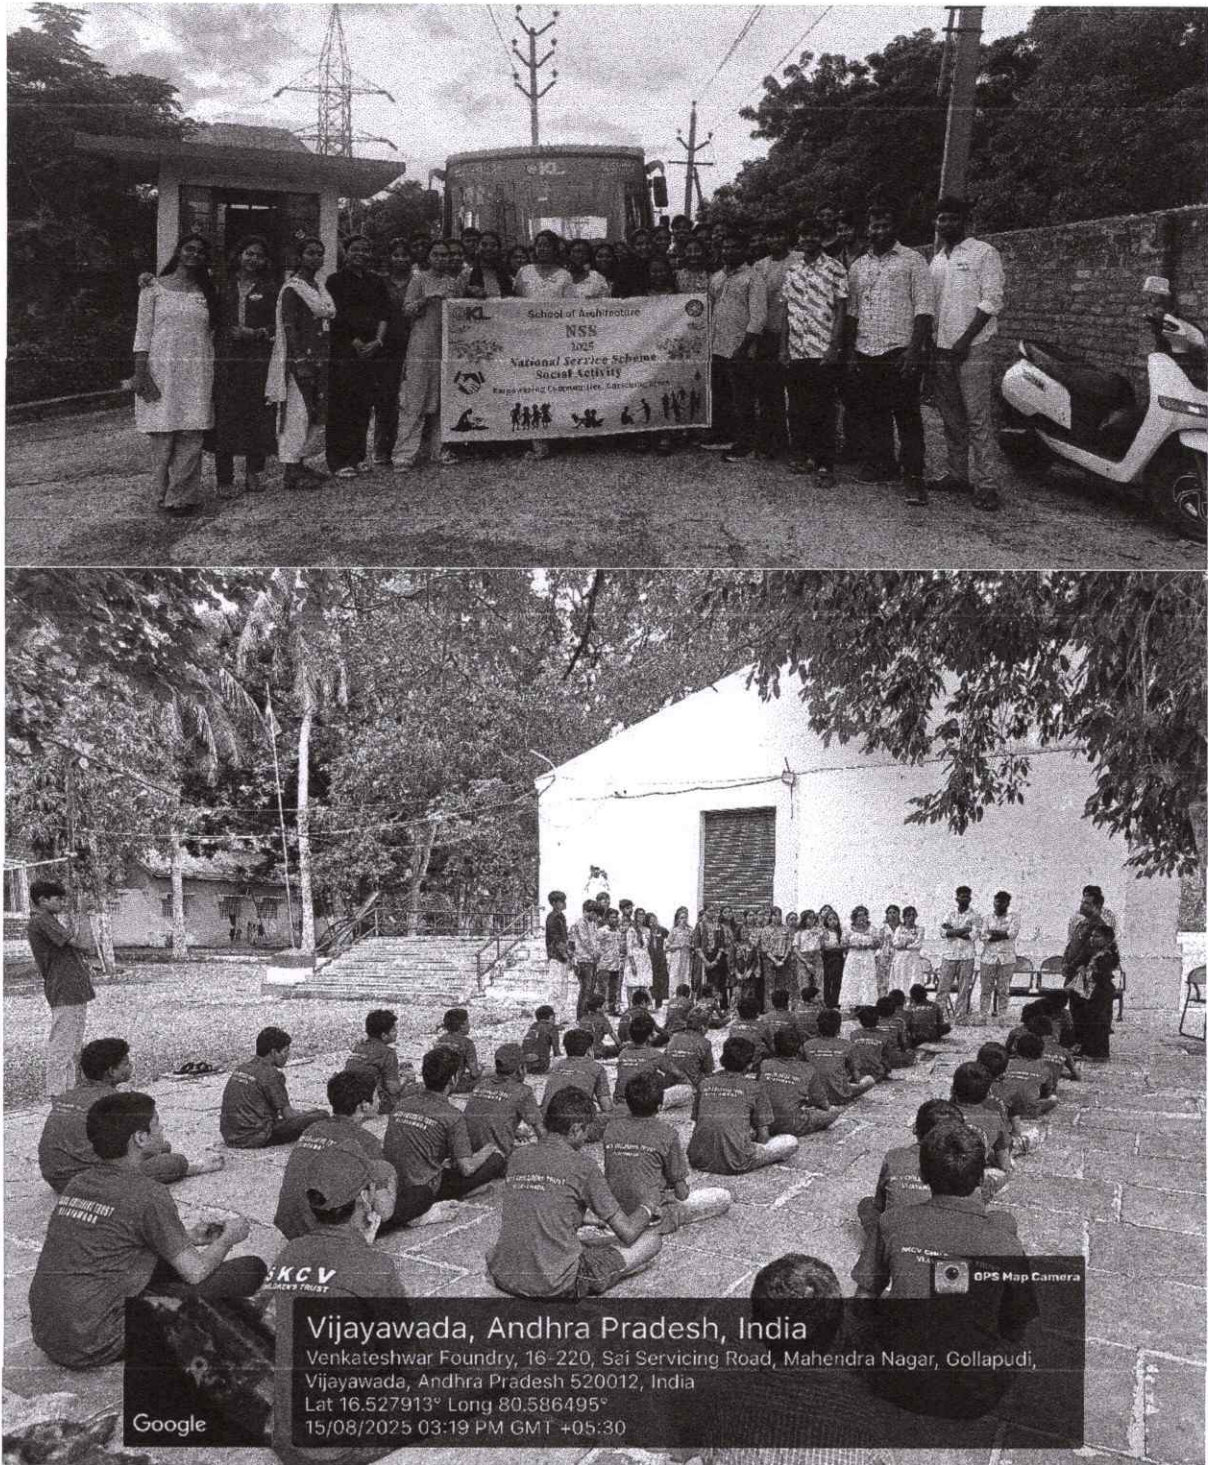

Conclusion

The NSS Outreach Program at SKCV Prema Vihar Boys Home was a memorable and impactful initiative that went beyond celebration, creating bonds of care and compassion. The event successfully nurtured values of service and responsibility among students while bringing smiles to the children's faces. KL School of Architecture continues to uphold its vision of shaping professionals who are not only architects of buildings but also architects of change in society.
