Create Your Comfort

Date: 18-10-2022 to 22-10-2022

Time: 10:30 AM to 5:00 PM

Venue: E-110, School of Architecture

OBJECTIVES:

The main objective of the event competition is to challenge participants to design innovative and practical living spaces that prioritize comfort, functionality, and aesthetic appeal. The competition aims to inspire creativity and technical proficiency among participants, encouraging them to apply architectural principles and sustainable practices in the creation of environments that enhance the quality of life.

DESCRIPTION/REPORT

The Department of Architecture at KLEF, Vaddeswaram, recently hosted a National Level Techno-Management Fest featuring the innovative 'Create Your Comfort' competition. This event brought together aspiring architects from across the country, challenging them to design living spaces that seamlessly blend comfort, functionality, and aesthetics. Participants showcased their creativity and technical expertise by incorporating sustainable practices and cutting-edge architectural principles into their designs. The competition not only highlighted the importance of comfort in living environments but also provided a platform for young architects to display their talents and exchange ideas. The event was a remarkable success, fostering a spirit of innovation and collaboration among the participants.

OUTCOMES:

The event saw an impressive array of innovative designs that seamlessly integrated comfort with sustainable and functional architectural solutions. The winning entries demonstrated a profound understanding of contemporary design challenges and provided practical yet aesthetically pleasing solutions. This competition not only rewarded the ingenuity of young architects but also inspired a deeper appreciation for the role of comfort in architectural design.
