

Here are Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) regarding the BA Economics program at KL University:

1. What is the duration of the BA Economics program at KL University?

- The undergraduate Economics program spans three to four years, depending on whether it is a general or an honors degree.

2. What are the eligibility criteria for admission to the BA Economics program?

- Applicants must have completed their higher secondary education (10+2) with 50% in any stream from a recognized board.

3. What is the curriculum for the BA Economics Program?

- The curriculum includes both Core and Skill courses in Economics such as Micro-economics, Macro-economics, Agricultural Economics, and elective courses that cover specialized areas such as International Economics, Development Economics, and Financial Economics.

4. What is the Job Oriented Skill Courses in BA Economics program at KL University?

- BA Economics curriculum in KL university covers Quantitative Techniques for Economics, Statistical Methods for Economics, Econometrics with Computer applications, Programming using Python, R Programming, and Machine Learning Applications in Economics that will help students to have hands-on experience and further help them to get campus placement opportunities with high level packages of salaries.

5. How does BA in Economics program help for my higher education opportunities in India & Abroad?

- Our BA in Economics builds a solid foundation in both Economic Theory and Data Analysis. Our students can pursue postgraduate programs like MA Economics, MBA, MA Public Policy and IR Programs in India and Abroad. Our on Campus International Relations office will continuously conduct awareness programs and help our students with necessary details to join PG programs abroad.

6. What are the internship opportunities are available?

- KL University encourages internships through its professional development programs. Our students will have the chance to intern with financial institutions like Banks and Corporates,

Regulatory Bodies, Government agencies, NITI Aayog and NGOs during their study of the BA Economics program.

7. What are the employment opportunities available after completing a BA Economics programme?

- Graduates may have employment opportunities in various fields including financial risk analyst, financial manager, economic consultant, market analyst, investment analyst, operations manager, content writer etc.

8. Is there any scholarship available for BA Economics students at KL University?

- The university offers Merit scholarships to all eligible candidates in addition to regular academic advising, tutoring services, and access to resources such as libraries and research databases.

9. How can I apply for the BA Economics course at KL University?

- Prospective students should check the official website of KL University for detailed application procedures, deadlines, and required documentation. Direct link is provided below for your reference.

For Admission

BA-IAS \(kluniversity.in\))

Regards,

Dr. B Siva Nagaiah

HOD

Mobile: 9182019425