A report on “Blanket Drive” on 31/10/2018 at Vijayawada

KL
KONERU LAKSHMAIAH UNIVERSITY

CENTRE FOR EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

BLANKET DRIVE

DONATE UNUSED BLANKETS AT DROP BINS
IN THE CAMPUS

Objective

Aspiration: The main Endeavour of the event is to help the needy.

Initiation: Our team CEA took a lead in helping the needy through this event “Blanket Drive”. We have involved the students and faculty of our university to donate their own unused blankets. We have placed drop boxes at many places in our university. We have collected the 153 blankets.

Details of the Event

Name of the Event	:	Blanket Drive
Date of the Event	:	31.10.2018
Venue	:	Vijayawada
Number of Students Participated	:	84
No. of Beneficiaries	:	153

Description

During the event, organizers and volunteers solicited blanket donations from the community, local businesses, and other organizations. They may have set up collection points at various locations, launched online campaigns, or partnered with schools, churches, or community centers to maximize the outreach. Points at various locations launched online campaigns, or partnered with schools, churches, or community centers to maximize the outreach.

The blanket drive event not only addressed the immediate need for warmth but also raised awareness about the plight of those experiencing homelessness or lacking basic necessities. It fostered a sense of compassion and unity within the community as people came together to support a common cause.

The success of the event can be measured not just by the number of blankets collected but also by the impact it had on the recipients' lives. The donated blankets could have provided much-needed relief, improved living conditions, and potentially saved lives during extreme weather conditions.

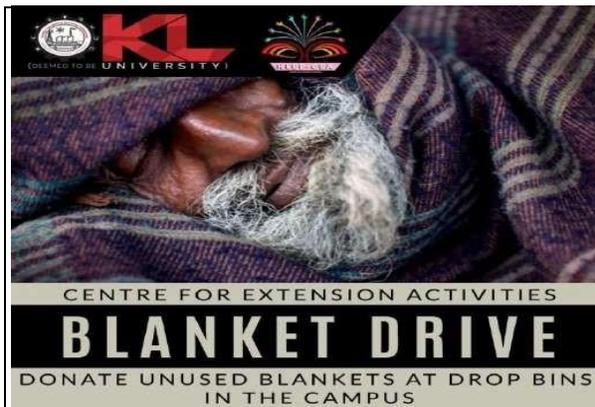

Furthermore, the blanket drive event may have encouraged more people to get involved in charitable activities and inspired a spirit of giving back to society. It might have also sparked conversations about homelessness, poverty, and the importance of social welfare initiatives.

Conclusion:

The entire faculty, students, and staff are the main reason for the grand success of the event. Their support for us in the collection of blankets is unforgettable. The eyes of the one in need are the real witness to their sufferings. Kindness is the language that the deaf can hear, the dumb can speak, the blind can see and the needy can be benefited. So, we continue this event “Blanket Drive” to help the needy to see and save their smiles.

The blanket drive event served as an exemplary demonstration of compassion, generosity, and community involvement. It played a significant role in providing warmth and comfort to those in need, fostering a sense of empathy within the community, and advocating for the well-being of vulnerable individuals. As a result, it not only made a positive impact on the lives of the recipients but also strengthened the community's commitment to helping others in the future.
