A report on awareness on sanitation in rural Kunchapalli village "Sanitation & Hygiene Awareness" on 24/12/2022

CENTRE FOR EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

SANITATION & HYGIENIC AWARENESS

DATE - 24/12/2022

VENUE - Kunchanapalli

   /klefcea

Objective

The "Sanitation & Hygienic Awareness" event, organized by the KLEF_CEA team in collaboration with the Department of Biotechnology Engineering at KL Deemed to be University, has as its goal educating and raising awareness of sanitation & hygiene among the Kunchanapalli Village inhabitants. And to educate women, adolescent girls, and kids on proper sanitation and hygiene practices.

Description

The sanitation & hygienic program is to create awareness of health and hygiene practices among the residents of Kunchanapalli Village and this program mainly focuses on women, adolescent girls, and children because to maintain a sustainable environment sanitation & hygiene play an important role in order to prevent the diseases caused by sanitation and hygiene.

This activity encourages them to use the restrooms provided by their schools and the community around them, as well as to practice better hygiene. This teaches the kids the value of keeping their homes, schools, and other properties tidy and clean by following proper sanitation and hygiene procedures.

The program's goal is to improve rural resident's health by lowering the prevalence of water-related illnesses. It also aims to improve their quality of life by providing access to sanitary toilets of high quality, encouraging hygienic toilet use, and providing sufficient space for soap washing.

Outcome

Sanitation and hygienic awareness program helps people in rural areas to improve their quality of life by providing safe, convenient, and sustainable water, sanitation services, and better hygiene.

This event helped the people how to improve sanitation and hygienic practices and how to use them precisely like tidying the places, keeping the surroundings clean, using disinfection liquids, etc.

Through this event, the residents of the Kunchanapalli village understood the actual practices of sanitation & hygiene and also realized how unhygienic surroundings affect their health and others' life.

And everyone who witnessed the event appreciated it for conducting such an event in order to serve the public and to keep the surroundings neat and clean and they also said that they will put effort into maintaining sanitation & hygienic practices in order to save them from further diseases.
