Objective

On a global level, sexism and gender discrimination continue to affect many women and girls. Gender inequality at its core underlies a number of problems that disproportionately affect women and girls. Women's rights movements have fought valiantly to end this injustice for many years, and new movements have exploded in the digital age. The KLEF_CEA team is hosting an event on July 31 in Gundemeda Village called "WOMEN RIGHTS" to raise awareness among women and girls.

Description:

The right to human rights belongs to everyone. These include the right to be free from violence and discrimination, the best possible degree of physical and mental health, the right to an education, the right to own property, the right to vote, and the right to a livable wage.

But sexism and gender discrimination are still prevalent in the world and affect many women and girls. Gender inequality is the basis of a number of issues that disproportionately affect women and girls, such as domestic and sexual violence, lower salaries, constrained access to education, and inadequate healthcare.

To increase women's awareness of their rights, the KLEF_CEA team organized an event titled "Women's Rights". The KLEF_CEA team thoroughly explained the ladies' rights to them, including what kinds of mental and physical rights they can have and how to proceed legally, to the women at the Gundemeda Village.

The procedure of the event:

- ❖ The KLEF_CEA team arrived at the location
- ❖ After dividing into groups, they explained women's rights to the residents of Gundemeda village
- ❖ They also covered their mental and physical rights and how to proceed legally
- ❖ Finally, they resolved all of the residents' questions.

Outcome:

- It also increased awareness of women's rights among residents of Gundemeda village, and all the participating women thanked the KLEF_CEA team for organizing such an amazing event that raised awareness among women about their rights.

- The students said the event's overall purpose was achieved since the KLEF_CEA team did an excellent job arranging it to raise awareness. Throughout the entire event, the volunteers behaved themselves and were quite friendly.
