A report on “Conservation of Electricity” 09/10/2024 at Chirravuru Village

Details of the Event:

Date of the Event	:	09-10-2024
Name of the Event	:	Conservation of Electricity
No. of Hours	:	01:30 PM To 04: 30 PM
Venue of the Event	:	Chirravuru Village
No. of Participants	:	Students: 81, Faculty: 02
No. of Beneficiaries	:	1450

Objective:

The Conservation of electricity is celebrated in India to promote awareness about energy conservation and sustainable practices. Events organized on this day, such as seminars, and offline activities, aim to engage participants in discussions about reducing energy consumption and adopting energy-efficient technologies. For instance, an offline event held by the students presenting innovative ideas on energy conservation, focusing on themes like "Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle" and government initiatives in this area.

The primary objectives of National Energy Conservation Day include:

- Creating Awareness: Educating the public about the importance of conserving energy and its environmental impacts.
- Encouraging Behavioural Change: Inspiring individuals and organizations to adopt energy-efficient practices in daily life.
- Recognizing Contributions: Acknowledging efforts made by individuals and institutions towards energy conservation through awards and competitions.
- Facilitating Policy Implementation: Providing a platform for policymakers to discuss effective strategies for promoting energy efficiency.

Description of the Event:

The event on electricity conservation organized by students in a village aimed to raise awareness and promote sustainable practices among community members. The following outlines the procedure of the event:

Event Planning1. Objective Setting

Define clear goals, such as educating the community about energy conservation techniques and encouraging sustainable habits.

2. Team Formation

Assemble a group of students responsible for various tasks, including logistics, outreach, and presentations.

3. Resource Gathering

Collect educational materials, pamphlets, and visual aids related to electricity conservation techniques, such as using LED bulbs and turning off appliances when not in use.

Impact of the society:

The impact of the society on the conservation of electricity, particularly following an event organized by students in a village, can be significant and multifaceted.

Here are some key aspects:

Increased Awareness and Education

1. Knowledge Dissemination

The event serves as a platform for educating community members about energy conservation techniques, such as using energy-efficient appliances and adopting simple habits like switching off lights when not in use. This educational outreach can lead to a more informed public that understands the importance of reducing electricity consumption.

2. Behavioural Change

By highlighting the benefits of energy conservation, such as lower electricity bills and reduced environmental impact, the event can motivate individuals to change their daily habits. This shift in behaviour is crucial, as user behaviour significantly influences overall energy consumption patterns.

Outcome:

The Conservation of electricity event in chirravuru Village, meticulously organized by KLEF-CEA, yielded transformative outcomes:

The outcomes of events like Conservation of Electricity can be significant:

- Increased participation from students and the general public in discussions about energy efficiency.
- Positive feedback from participants regarding their learning experiences and innovative contributions.
- Development of actionable ideas that can be implemented in local communities to promote energy conservation.
- Heightened awareness about global issues such as climate change and resource depletion among attendees
