No. of Hours	:	02:30 PM To 05: 30 PM
Venue of the Event	:	KLEF
No. of Participants	:	Students: 82, Faculty: 03
No. of Beneficiaries	:	1135

Description of the Event:

KLEF-CEA organised an “Eco-Friendly Ganesh Idols Distribution” program on the occasion of Vinayaka Chavithi on 26th August 2025 at KLEF with the aim of promoting environmental sustainability and spreading awareness about the importance of using clay idols. As part of the event, eco-friendly Ganesh idols made of natural clay were distributed to students, faculty, and staff, encouraging them to celebrate the festival in a way that preserves nature and prevents water pollution caused by plaster of Paris idols. The program received active participation and created a sense of responsibility among the KLEF community to celebrate traditions in harmony with the environment.

Objectives:

- To promote the use of eco-friendly clay Ganesh idols instead of harmful plaster of Paris idols.
- To create awareness about the environmental impact of idol immersion on water bodies.
- To encourage students, faculty, and community members to adopt sustainable festive practices.
- To preserve cultural traditions while ensuring ecological balance.
- To instill a sense of social and environmental responsibility among participants.
- To support the vision of green celebrations and protect natural resources for future generations.

Outcome:

The Eco-Friendly Ganesh Idols Distribution on the occasion of Vinayaka Chavithi at KLEF on 26th August 2025 resulted in a highly positive outcome by inspiring students, faculty, and staff to adopt sustainable practices during the festival. A large number of participants received clay idols and pledged to celebrate the occasion in an eco-conscious manner, thereby reducing the harmful effects of chemical and plaster of Paris idols on water bodies. The event not only promoted environmental protection but also strengthened the idea of celebrating traditions in a responsible way, leaving a lasting impression on the KLEF community to prioritize eco-friendly celebrations.

Impact of the Society:

The “Eco-Friendly Ganesh Idols Distribution” on the occasion of Vinayaka Chavithi created a significant impact on society by spreading awareness about the importance of protecting the environment while celebrating festivals. By encouraging the use of clay idols, the initiative helped reduce water pollution and safeguarded aquatic life, setting an example for the larger community to adopt eco-friendly practices. It motivated individuals to take small yet meaningful steps towards sustainability, inspired collective responsibility for nature, and strengthened the message that cultural traditions can be celebrated in harmony with environmental conservation.
