A report on “FIRST AID AWARENESS” 27/10/2025 at Athmakuru Village

Details of the Event:

Date of the Event	: 27-10-2025
Name of the Event	: First Aid Awareness
No. of Hours	: 09:30 AM To 12: 30 PM
Venue of the Event	: Athmakuru Village
No. of Participants	: Students: 80, Faculty: 02
No. of Beneficiaries	: 1240

Description of the Event:

KLEF-CEA organized a door-to-door campaign on “First Aid Awareness” on 27/10/2025 at Athamukuru Village. The campaign aimed to educate the villagers about the importance of first aid and how timely assistance can save lives during emergencies. Volunteers interacted with households, explaining basic first aid techniques for burns, cuts, fractures, and fainting. Demonstrations were given on using first aid kits and handling common injuries effectively. The initiative helped enhance the community’s knowledge and preparedness to respond promptly to health emergencies.

Objectives:

1. To educate villagers about the importance of first aid and its role in saving lives during emergencies.
2. To demonstrate basic first aid techniques for common injuries such as burns, cuts, and fractures.
3. To create awareness on the proper use of first aid kits and emergency response procedures.
4. To encourage households to keep a basic first aid kit readily available.
5. To empower the community with the knowledge and confidence to provide immediate assistance before medical help arrives.

Outcome:

The “First Aid Awareness” door-to-door campaign at Athamukuru Village resulted in increased awareness and understanding among villagers about handling medical emergencies effectively. Many residents learned the importance of immediate first aid care and expressed interest in keeping first aid kits at home. The demonstrations conducted by volunteers helped participants gain practical knowledge on treating minor injuries and stabilizing patients before medical help arrives. Overall, the campaign successfully enhanced the community’s preparedness and confidence in managing emergency situations responsibly.

Impact of the Society:

The “First Aid Awareness” door-to-door campaign at Athamukuru Village had a positive impact on the society by fostering a sense of responsibility and preparedness among the villagers. The initiative empowered the community with essential life-saving knowledge and encouraged proactive responses during medical emergencies. People became more aware of the importance of first aid training and the need to maintain a first aid kit in every household. This campaign not only improved individual awareness but also strengthened the village’s collective ability to handle health-related crises efficiently and confidently.
