Description of the Event:

KLEF-CEA organised “Constitution Day” on 26/11/2025 at MPP School, Chirravuru Village, aiming to create awareness among students about the significance of the Indian Constitution and its core values. During the programme, volunteers explained the importance of the Constitution, fundamental rights, and duties through interactive sessions and brief presentations. Students actively participated in discussions and enthusiastically read the Preamble, reinforcing their understanding of constitutional principles. The event encouraged civic responsibility and inspired young learners to uphold democratic values in their daily lives.

Objectives:

- ❖ To create awareness among students about the importance and significance of the Indian Constitution.
- ❖ To educate students on Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties, and the guiding principles of the nation.
- ❖ To encourage students to understand and recite the Preamble, fostering respect for constitutional values.
- ❖ To promote civic responsibility, democratic thinking, and active participation in nation-building.
- ❖ To inspire young learners to uphold equality, justice, and integrity in their daily lives.

Outcome:

The “Constitution Day” programme at MPP School, Chirravuru Village resulted in enhanced awareness among students about the significance of the Indian Constitution and its core values. Students gained a clearer understanding of their Fundamental Rights and Duties and actively participated in reading the Preamble with enthusiasm. The interactive discussions helped them develop a sense of civic responsibility and respect for democratic principles. Overall, the event successfully encouraged young learners to appreciate the importance of constitutional values and motivated them to practice them in their everyday lives.

Impact of the Society:

The “Constitution Day” programme at MPP School, Chirravuru Village had a positive impact on the society by promoting greater awareness of constitutional values among young students and their families. As children shared their learnings at home, the message of Fundamental Rights, Duties, and democratic principles reached the wider community, fostering a more informed and responsible citizenry. The initiative encouraged respect for equality, justice, and national integrity, helping strengthen community involvement in nation-building. Overall, the programme contributed to cultivating a more aware and civically responsible society.
