Description of the Event:

KLEF–Centre for Extension Activities (CEA), in association with the Departments of BCA and AI&DS jointly organised a “Donations of Groceries” programme on 20/02/2026 at an Orphanage Home in Krishnalanka. The initiative was conducted with the objective of extending support to underprivileged children by distributing essential grocery items such as rice, pulses, oil, and other daily necessities. Faculty members and students actively participated in the service activity, interacting with the children and staff to understand their needs and promote a spirit of compassion and social responsibility. The programme reflected the institution’s commitment to community service and inclusive development.

Objectives:

- To provide essential grocery items to support the daily needs of children residing in the orphanage.
- To extend humanitarian assistance to underprivileged and vulnerable sections of society.
- To inculcate a sense of social responsibility and compassion among students.
- To encourage active community engagement through service-oriented initiatives.
- To strengthen the bond between the institution and local community organizations.
- To promote the values of sharing, caring, and collective well-being.

Outcome:

The “Donations of Groceries” programme at the Orphanage Home, Krishnalanka resulted in meaningful support to the children by ensuring the availability of essential food items for their daily needs. The initiative brought joy and a sense of care to the inmates, while also fostering empathy and social commitment among the participating students. It strengthened the connection between the institution and the orphanage, highlighting the importance of community involvement and collective responsibility towards the welfare of underprivileged sections of society.

Impact of the Society:

The “Donations of Groceries” programme at the Orphanage Home, Krishnalanka created a positive social impact by encouraging a culture of giving and collective responsibility within the community. Such initiatives inspire individuals and institutions to actively contribute towards the welfare of underprivileged children, thereby strengthening social bonds and promoting inclusive development. The programme also raised awareness about the needs of orphanages and motivated society to participate in sustained support activities, fostering compassion, unity, and shared commitment to social well-being.
