Description of the Event:

The KLEF Centre for Extension Activities (CEA), in association with the Department of BA and Orientation Programme, jointly organized the celebration of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Birth Anniversary Day under the theme “Social Justice, Equality & Empowerment.” The programme was conducted to honor the remarkable contributions of B. R. Ambedkar towards social equality, constitutional values, and the empowerment of marginalized communities. The event was graced by Chief Guests Dr. Ravi Babu and Dr. K. Ramesh, who addressed the students and highlighted the importance of education, youth participation, human rights, and inclusive development in building a progressive society. Faculty members, students, and volunteers actively participated in the programme, making the event meaningful and inspiring.

Objectives:

- ❖ To commemorate the birth anniversary and contributions of B. R. Ambedkar towards social justice and equality.
- ❖ To create awareness among students and the community about constitutional rights and duties.
- ❖ To promote the values of equality, unity, and empowerment in society.
- ❖ To encourage youth participation in social development and nation-building activities.
- ❖ To educate participants about the importance of education in achieving social and economic empowerment.
- ❖ To inspire students to follow the ideals of justice, liberty, and fraternity advocated by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar.
- ❖ To strengthen awareness on inclusive development and respect for all sections of society.

Outcome:

The celebration of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Birth Anniversary Day on the theme “Social Justice, Equality & Empowerment” created significant awareness among students and participants about the ideals and contributions of B. R. Ambedkar towards equality, constitutional rights, and social reform. The programme inspired students to understand the importance of education, unity, and empowerment in building an inclusive society. Participants actively engaged in the event and gained knowledge about social responsibility, leadership, and the need to uphold democratic values in everyday life.

Impact of the Society:

The celebration of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Birth Anniversary Day on the theme “Social Justice, Equality & Empowerment” had a positive impact on society by promoting awareness about equality, human rights, and constitutional values inspired by B. R. Ambedkar. The programme encouraged people, especially youth and students, to respect diversity and work towards an inclusive and discrimination-free society. It also strengthened social responsibility, community participation, and awareness about the importance of education and empowerment in achieving sustainable social development.
