Description of the Event:

KLEF – Centre for Extension Activities (CEA) organised “VASTHRADHAN”, a clothes distribution programme on 25/08/2026 and 26/08/2026, with the active participation of the Departments of BCA and CSIT. The programme was conducted at PGM Orphanage, Athmakuru; Sharon Orphanage, Mangalagiri; SKCV Orphanage-Alankar Centre; Child Aid Foundation-Patamata and Amma Prema Seva Samstha, Vijayawada. As part of this initiative, clothes were distributed to children and beneficiaries, spreading the values of sharing, compassion, and social responsibility. The programme also provided an opportunity for students and volunteers to actively engage in community service and contribute towards the welfare of underprivileged sections of society.

Objectives:

- ❖ To provide essential clothing support to children and beneficiaries in orphanage homes.
- ❖ To promote the values of sharing, compassion, kindness, and social responsibility among students.
- ❖ To encourage the active participation of BCA and CSIT students in community service activities.
- ❖ To extend care and support to underprivileged children and contribute to their well-being.
- ❖ To create awareness among students about the importance of giving back to society and supporting vulnerable communities.
- ❖ To strengthen the commitment of KLEF-CEA towards social welfare and community development.

Outcome:

The “VASTHRADHAN” clothes distribution programme resulted in providing essential clothing support to children and beneficiaries at PGM Orphanage, Athmakuru; Sharon Orphanage, Mangalagiri; SKCV Orphanage; Child Aid Foundation-Patamata and Amma Prema Seva Samstha, Vijayawada. The active participation of the BCA and CSIT Departments encouraged students to develop empathy, compassion, and a sense of social responsibility. The programme brought happiness and support to the beneficiaries while strengthening students' commitment to community service and the social welfare initiatives of KLEF-CEA.

Impact of the Society:

The “VASTHRADHAN” clothes distribution programme created a positive social impact by extending essential support to children and beneficiaries at PGM Orphanage, Athmakuru; Sharon Orphanage, Mangalagiri; SKCV Orphanage; Child Aid Foundation-Patamata and Amma Prema Seva Samstha, Vijayawada. The active participation of the BCA and CSIT Departments promoted empathy, kindness, and social responsibility among students. The initiative helped strengthen the spirit of community service, encouraged the culture of sharing and caring, and contributed to building a more compassionate and socially responsible society.
