A report on donation of used clothes to the orphanages “Vasthradhan” on 08/11/2022 & 09/11/2022 at Mangalagiri & Vijayawada areas

Objective

Vasthradhan is a clothing donation that is regarded as one of life's essentials. The Vasthradhan event was successfully completed by the KLEF_CEA (Centre for Extension Activities) team in the areas with the greatest need. More than just owning them, there is joy in giving a pair of garments away and knowing that they will be used. Everyone needs life's warmth throughout the winter, thus KLEF_CEA organized Vasthradhan for those in need and those who are eagerly anticipating life's warmth while also hoping to see their smiles.

Description

KLEF_CEA team hosted an event named Vasthradhan with the intent to serve the public who are needy in a bonafide nature. Today, we throw away a lot of clothes and other textile items because they don't look good anymore but throwing away clothes is wasteful and harms the environment. It's better if we can donate our old clothes.

By donating old clothes instead of throwing them away, they conserve the earth's resources and prevent adding necessary carbon dioxide to the atmosphere. Plus, many charitable organizations recycle a lot of used clothing items too. So they can use it again to create new clothing pieces.

The team CEA (Centre for Extension Activities) conducted the event in the university by collecting old clothes from the students and distributing them in various orphanages, old age homes, and slum areas from 08/11/2022 to 09/11/2022 for the people who are striving to the thriftiness of the clothes.

Benefits:

- By the event their basic need is met.
- It is good for the environment and conserves natural resources.
- It enables the people in need to feel more confident about themselves.

Outcome

The team CEA's initiative not only provided clothing but also sparked conversations about sustainable practices, recycling, and reducing waste. The event's impact extended beyond the immediate distribution of clothes, inspiring a long-term commitment to social service and community engagement. The team CEA's accomplishment in successfully conducting Vasthradhan exemplifies the positive impact that can be achieved through collaborative efforts. By extending a helping hand through the donation of clothes, the team CEA contributed to creating a more equitable and compassionate society.

Objective

Menstruations are the ultimate weapon of recreation. Apart from severe physical pain, menstruations require nurturing, care, and especially no period shaming. Menstrual health plays a pivotal role in every girl's and woman's life. Maintaining a balanced diet and ample exercise, aids in good menstrual health. Hygiene during this period of time reduces many adverse effects of post-adolescent and post-menopause. We, team KLEF-CEA, conducted an event named "Menstrual Hygiene", which promotes precautions and awareness regarding menstruation.

Description

Menstruations are the ultimate weapon of recreation. Apart from severe physical pain, menstruations require nurturing, care, and especially no period shaming. Menstrual health plays a pivotal role in every girl's and woman's life. Maintaining a balanced diet and ample exercise aids for good menstrual health. Hygiene during this period of time reduces many adverse effects of post-adolescent and post-menopause.

Our team KLEF-CEA successfully accomplished the event “menstrual hygiene” after some substantial ground works. The event was held with a motto of educating girls at their puberty to deal with the most common biological change that happens with their body which is, “periods”. As a part of this event, our volunteers interacted with the girls of the municipal high school, Mangalgi, and enlightened them about the amount of care and nurturing that their bodies require during their menstruation. The event created awareness among many girls and encouraged them to share their concerns regarding periods without any embracement.

This is a step taken toward the vision leading to “No period shaming”. The girls were educated about the necessity of sanitary napkins and the right manner to use them. They also thought about the ways to dispose of sanitary napkins. Our volunteers also projected a PowerPoint presentation in the classrooms showing the video elaboration regarding the usage of menstrual cups.

Outcomes

Educated young girls regarding menstrual hygiene and explained the science behind periods. Addressed their problems and suggested a few medically proven natural remedies. A step against period shaming.
