WORKSHOP ON IOT.

Dates: 6-03-2020

KLEF, Computer Science and Engineering Department is primarily aimed at encouraging students to learn and pursue their individual talents and abilities. FOCUS, the Student Association of CSE department initiated up internet on things internet on things are community-run study groups for developers. From containerizing applications to creating virtual machines, Study Jams can be tailored to specific IOT topics and skill levels. Whether you're a beginner developer or interested in diving into Machine Learning, BigQuery, Certification, or Kubernetes - there's a track for you. You'll learn the fundamental tools and capabilities of Google IOT with free access to hands-on labs. All Study Jam participants get one-month free access to QwikLabs. Users who complete designated quests receive Google IOT badges, unlocking additional free access.
