Pattern King

Dates: 18.09.2019

KLEF, Computer Science and Engineering Department is primarily aimed at encouraging students to learn and pursue their individual talents and abilities. FOCUS, the Student Association of CSE department initiated up Pattern King.

In first round participant is given with a random alphabet with some constraints like the size of the alphabet. Now he must print the alphabet with the help of the code desired. Like the first round in second round the participant is given with the numbers with some constraints instead of alphabets which were given in first round. In last round participants are given with some complex patterns instead of alphabets and numbers.

Team Size: 1 Member
