Clash of Minds

Date of the Event: 29th JANUARY 2023

VENUE: C625

Organizing Department: Computer Science and Engineering

Event Description:

Clash Of Minds is a debate where the participants are divided into two equal teams and will be given a topic. The debate will begin with opening statements from each participant, outlining their perspective on the given topic and their proposed solutions. This will be followed by a moderated discussion, where participants will have the opportunity to challenge each other's ideas and explore different viewpoints. The debate will conclude with closing statements from each participant, summarizing their position and emphasizing the importance of taking action on the problem statement.
