Awareness Campaign -Constitutional Rights

Date: 27-08-2024

Introduction

On August 24th, 2024, the Department of Computer Science & Information Technology (CS&IT) hosted a guest lecture titled “Awareness Campaign - Constitutional Rights.” The event was part of an ongoing initiative to educate students about their fundamental rights and responsibilities as citizens. The lecture attracted a diverse audience, including students, faculty members, and administrative staff.

Objective

The primary objective of the lecture was to increase awareness of the constitutional rights that every citizen of the country is entitled to. The session aimed to highlight the importance of understanding these rights to ensure their protection and to empower individuals to exercise them responsibly.

Highlights of the Lecture

- Introduction to Constitutional Rights: The guest speaker provided a detailed overview of the constitutional rights enshrined in the constitution, including the right to equality, freedom, and protection against discrimination.
- Importance of Awareness: Emphasis was placed on the importance of being aware of one’s rights to prevent exploitation and injustice. The speaker explained how awareness of rights contributes to a more just and equitable society.
- Role of Technology in Promoting Awareness: Given the department’s focus on technology, the speaker discussed how digital platforms and social media can be used effectively to spread awareness about constitutional rights. Examples of successful online campaigns were presented to illustrate this point.

- Interactive Session: The lecture concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where students asked insightful questions about their rights in various scenarios, including in the workplace and during interactions with law enforcement. The speaker provided practical advice on how to handle such situations while staying within legal boundaries.

Conclusion

The guest lecture on “Awareness Campaign - Constitutional Rights” was a significant success, fulfilling its objective of educating participants about their constitutional rights. The session was both informative and engaging, leaving attendees with a deeper understanding of the importance of being aware of their rights as citizens. The Department of CS&IT plans to organize more such events in the future to continue raising awareness and promoting informed citizenship among its students.
