REGISTRAR

Objective:

The objective of the Har Ghar Tiranga campaign is to foster a sense of patriotism among citizens, encourage them to display the national flag at their homes, and collectively celebrate India's independence. The initiative aims to strengthen the emotional connection between the people and the national symbol, promoting unity and national pride.

Description:

KL University upholds the belief that every Indian citizen has a duty to protect national unity and integrity, as expressed by Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. KRS. Prasad. During the Independence Day celebrations held on Thursday in Pratur Village, Tadepalli Rural, under the NSS Department, the "Har Ghar Tiranga" program was organized as part of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. Volunteers distributed national flags to households, encouraging residents to hoist them and recognize the flag's significance, according to Dr. M. Suman, Head of the ECE Department. These initiatives are intended to instill patriotism and highlight the importance of the national flag in contemporary society. NSS Program Coordinator P. Srikanth Reddy explained the program's purpose to the villagers. The event began with a rally through the village streets, led by volunteers from the CSE NSS program, who carried flags and chanted slogans of "Bharat Mata Ki Jai," as noted by Dr. CH. Nagamani. Key participants in the program included Vice Chancellor Dr. Partha Saradhi Verma, Pro Vice Chancellor Dr. AVS. Prasad, Dr. N. Venkatram, and Dean of Student Affairs Advisor Dr. Habibullah Khan, among others, who congratulated the organizers. Suresh and G. Chandrasekhar served as coordinators.

Outcome:

The event successfully fostered a sense of patriotism and national pride among the villagers, encouraging them to hoist the national flag and recognize its significance. It strengthened the community's awareness of their responsibility toward national unity and integrity. The active participation of university leaders and volunteers further emphasized the importance of such initiatives in promoting civic values.

Impact on Society:

The event had a positive impact on society by promoting national unity and reinforcing the importance of the national flag as a symbol of collective identity. It inspired greater civic engagement and responsibility among citizens, particularly in rural areas. Additionally, the initiative helped bridge the gap between educational institutions and local communities, fostering collaboration and mutual understanding.
