

A Guest Lecture report on “Recent Trends in Image Processing”

As part of the Research Group activities, a guest lecture is conducted by Image Processing research group of department of ECM on 12th March, 2013 from 10.00a.m to 1.00p.m. in peacock hall. The faculty and students of ECM and other branches are participated in this guest lecture. Dr. E. Sreenivasa Reddy, Principal, University Engineering College, Acharya Nagarjuna University, Nambur delivered the concepts and ideas to do research in this area. In his lecture he discussed about the present trends in Image Processing technologies and the importance of each sub area and its applications.

