Dr. G. Sumathi discussed on the topic “Respect on women in our culture” in her words -

Women constitute almost half of the world's population. Yet their social, economic, and political status is lower than that of men in all countries. In India, there were distinct stages of rise and fall in the status of women.

A denouement of the personal desiderata strengthens the respect towards others – also and especially towards women, who already practice an invalidation of the ego in their daily life. The devotion towards the superior – also towards the family – and the willingness to sacrifice, in the sense of abstinence to the extent of self-sacrifice, forms the existence of women in India on all societal levels in all periods. Women are denied opportunities to participate in the decision making process. Even when the decisions are to affect their well-being, they are only passive observers. The primary challenge facing women today is to increase their participation so that they get hold of the situation and become actively involved the process of decision making.

Finally vote of thanks was given by Mrs. Krishnaveni and Ms. K. Bharathi, Asst. Prof, Department of ECM. they thanked Dr. G. Sumati for sparing her time and giving wonderful suggestions to the students.
