Koneru Lakshmaiah University Registrar Dr. N. Rangaiah releasing the book 'English Language Teaching in India: Issues, Debates and Strategies' on the university campus, near Vijayawada.

K.L. University Registrar N. Rangaiah released a book titled English Language Teaching in India: Issues, Debates and Strategies' on the university campus.

The book was published by Associate Professor in English, K.K. Sunalini.

The book unfolds 24 research articles on various topics like issues and debates surrounding the introduction of English in the country, bridging the gap between the academia and industry.

The book has successfully drawn the arguments from scholars regarding the recent trends in English Language Teaching which is shifting its focus from teaching to training.

Principal A. Anand Kumar, Head of the Department M. Latha and others attended the programme.
