Date : 24th & 25th June, 2019

Time : 10:00 A.M to 12:00 P.M

Venue : Moot Court Hall

Description: KLEF College of Law in collaboration with The Guntur Bar Association, in collaboration with KLEF College of Law, organized a two-day state-level workshop on "Emerging Laws" held on the 24th and 25th of June, 2019. The workshop aimed to provide faculty members from various law colleges with insights into contemporary legal issues, recent legislative developments, and emerging trends in the legal field. Through interactive sessions, expert presentations, and discussions, the workshop aimed to enhance the participants' understanding of new and evolving legal concepts and their implications in teaching, research, and practice.

Objective:

1. To familiarize faculty members with recent legislative changes and emerging legal frameworks across different areas of law.
2. To facilitate discussions and knowledge sharing on contemporary legal issues, challenges, and opportunities relevant to legal education and practice.
3. To enhance the participants' pedagogical skills and teaching methodologies by incorporating insights from emerging laws and legal trends into academic curricula.
4. To provide a platform for networking and collaboration among faculty members, legal practitioners, and experts for interdisciplinary exchange and professional development.
5. To inspire and empower faculty members to integrate emerging legal topics into their research agendas, publications, and scholarly activities.

Outcomes:

1. Increased awareness and understanding among faculty members regarding recent legislative developments and emerging legal issues in various fields of law.
2. Enhanced pedagogical competencies and teaching resources for incorporating emerging laws into law school curricula and classroom instruction.
3. Strengthened collaboration and knowledge-sharing networks among faculty members, legal professionals, and experts, fostering a supportive community of legal educators.
4. Promotion of interdisciplinary research and scholarship on emerging legal topics, leading to the production of innovative and impactful academic work.

5. Improved academic rigor and relevance in legal education through the integration of contemporary legal issues and trends into teaching, research, and professional development activities.
 6. Enhanced reputation and visibility of participating institutions as centers of excellence in legal education and research, contributing to their institutional advancement and recognition.
 7. Continued engagement and collaboration between the Guntur Bar Association and KLEF College of Law in organizing similar capacity-building initiatives and knowledge dissemination activities for the legal community in the future.
