GUEST LECTURE

ON PRACTICAL INTRICACIES INVOLVED IN ARBITRATION CASES

On 05-09-2024, Mr. Y. Tagore, a practicing advocate specializing in arbitration matters, delivered an insightful guest lecture for final-year BBA LL.B. students. His presentation focused on the practical intricacies involved in arbitration cases, shedding light on both the theoretical foundations and real-world applications.

Mr. Tagore began by explaining the arbitration process, emphasizing the importance of drafting clear arbitration clauses and understanding the role of arbitrators. He shared case studies that illustrated common challenges, such as procedural delays and enforceability issues, equipping students with practical knowledge to navigate these complexities.

The lecture also addressed the significance of effective negotiation skills and the need for thorough preparation before arbitration hearings. Students were encouraged to engage in discussions, fostering a dynamic learning environment. Mr. Tagore's expertise provided valuable insights, enhancing students' understanding of arbitration as a vital alternative dispute resolution mechanism. The session concluded with a Q&A, further enriching the learning experience.
