Report

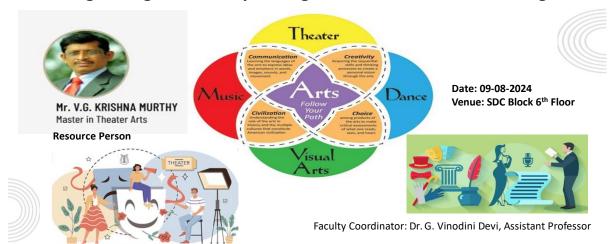

On 9th August 2024, the School of Law at KLEF hosted a guest lecture by Mr. Gopala Krishna Murthy, an expert in theater arts from the KLEF Abhinaya Club. The lecture titled "Significance of Arts in Teaching" emphasized the role of performing arts in improving communication skills, creativity, and emotional intelligence, crucial for law students. Mr. Murthy highlighted how integrating arts into teaching methods can foster a more engaging and holistic learning experience.

He demonstrated various techniques from theater, including role-playing and storytelling, to showcase how legal concepts can be taught more effectively. The session was interactive, with students participating in brief activities that illustrated the practical application of these methods. The lecture received an enthusiastic response from the students, enriching their understanding of alternative pedagogical approaches.
