Formation of Literary Club at College of Law, KL Deemed to be University

Dear Students and Faculty, we are pleased to announce the formation of a "KLEF College of Law: Literary Club [KLEF-LC]". We believe that literature plays a crucial role in shaping our understanding of the world and enhancing our legal acumen. We look forward to your enthusiastic participation in this new endeavour. KLEF-LC would offer its services not only to the students of KLEF College of Law, but to the other institutions/universities as well.

This new initiative AIMS at, apart from other things,

- fostering love for literature,
- enhance critical thinking, and
- promote creative expression among the student community at large.

Objectives of the Literary Club:

1. Reading and Creative Writing: Promote diverse literary genres and authors.
2. Discussions and Seminars: Organize sessions to discuss literary works and their implications in the legal field and society.
3. Workshops and Guest Lectures: Host workshops and invite guest speakers to enrich our literary experience.
4. Publications and Organizing Events: MUN, Spell Bee, Deliberations on Landmark Judgements, Story-telling, Publication of Magazine, Newsletters and Year Book,

Membership: All students and faculty members are encouraged to join. Whether you're an avid reader, a budding writer, or simply interested in discussing literature, your participation will be valuable.

For any queries, please feel free to contact the undersigned.

Warm regards,
