In a vibrant display of unity and commitment, around 150 individuals, comprising students and faculty, came together to undertake the Panch Pran Pledge as directed by the Department of Justice, Government of India. The event was organized to resonate with the vision articulated by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India from the Red Fort, inspiring a collective resolve towards building a developed nation. The participants, with hearts brimming with pride and determination, solemnly committed to the Panch Pran principles, which include the aspirations for a developed India, the eradication of a colonial mindset, pride in our legacy, dedication to unity and integrity, and the awakening of a sense of duty in every citizen. The pledge-taking ceremony was a profound moment, reflecting the collective ambition and dedication to contribute actively towards the nation's growth and development.

The ceremony commenced with a keynote address by the Principal Dr. K.I. Pavan Kumar who highlighted the significance of the Panch Pran Pledge and its relevance in today's socio-political landscape. This was followed by the recitation of the pledge, with each participant echoing the solemn words that encapsulate the essence of the Prime Minister's vision. The atmosphere was charged with a sense of patriotic fervor as the participants affirmed their commitment to the pledge. The event concluded with a brief session of reflections where students and faculty shared their personal insights and the ways they intend to uphold the Panch Pran principles in their daily lives. This initiative not only fostered a deeper sense of national pride but also reinforced the collective responsibility towards building a unified and prosperous India.
