

Brief Profile

Dr. J. Robert Edwin Chester is an honoured academic and experienced researcher currently serving as an Associate Professor in the Department of Commerce at KL University, Vijayawada. With an impressive career spanning 30 years, Dr. J. Robert Edwin has made significant contributions to the field of commerce and management through his teaching and research across various countries, including 13 years in Republic of Maldives, 6 years in the Kingdom of Bahrain, 2 years in the Republic of Malawi (Central Africa), and India. Dr. Robert Edwin Chester earned his Ph.D. in Commerce from Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli, in 2008. His scholarly journey is marked by the publication of 49 research articles in numerous reputed journals, encompassing UGC Care-listed journals, Scopus-indexed journals, peer-reviewed publications, and conference proceedings. In addition he authored 9 books and wrote chapter in 10 Editorial books. This extensive body of work underscores his commitment to advancing knowledge in the field of commerce. In addition to his research publications, Dr. Chester has authored eleven books, which serve as valuable textbooks and reference materials for students, Research Scholars and professionals alike. His expertise and contributions to academia extend beyond his writing; he is also the Editor-in-Chief of BGR Publications, Editor in Multi spectrum publication, and a Chairman of Scientific Multi Disciplinary Association of Research Task (SMART) Trust . Dr. J. Robert Edwin influence in the academic community is further highlighted by his active involvement in organizing and conducting seminars, Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), conferences, and workshops. His ability to effectively disseminate knowledge and engage with both national and international audiences has established him as a sought-after resource person in the field of finance and HR. He frequently serves as an expert speaker at various conferences and seminars, sharing his insights and fostering discussions on contemporary financial issues.