

Dr Siva Kumar one page profile

At the outset, I wish to be a part of world class institution as a Faculty in Management. I am Dr.Venkata Naga Siva Kumar. Challa acquired PhD from Acharya Nagarjuna University in 2018. I started my career in teaching field as an Asst. Professor in 2009. I earned experience in taking different responsibilities, playing new roles as counselor, nurturing the students for management meets, campus placements etc; I submitted various national and international research articles and bagged best paper award in South Korea and serving as a peer reviewer for various international reputed journals. I extended my teaching trajectory through learning to various institutions with innovative skills and bagged an experience of 15 years. Apart from that I taught management classes to corporate people for competitive exams in their respective departments for internal promotions.