TRAINING SESSIONS ON PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT and LEADERSHIP SKILLS to GROUP 1 OFFICERS of ANDHRA PRADESH GOVERNMENT

Program Summary

On 10th September 2025, Dr Shyamsundar Tripathy, Assistant Professor and IQAC In-Charge at KL Business School, Koneru Lakshmaiah Education Foundation (KLEF), conducted two highly impactful training sessions on Personality Development and Leadership Skills for the Group-1 officers of the Government of Andhra Pradesh.

The sessions focused on enhancing self-awareness, communication, decision-making, and strategic leadership abilities—key competencies required for officers entrusted with critical administrative responsibilities. The discussions also emphasised the role of emotional intelligence and ethical leadership in effective governance.

Speaking about the initiative, Dr. Tripathy highlighted the importance of continuous professional development for public officials, stating that “strong leadership and well-rounded personality traits are indispensable for effective public service and sustainable governance.”

This program reflects the unwavering commitment of KL Business School to contribute to nation-building by empowering leaders with transformative skills. As part of its broader vision, the institution consistently designs and delivers customised executive education and training modules that foster leadership excellence, personal growth, and ethical decision-making among professionals.

The collaboration with Andhra Pradesh Government officials marks yet another milestone in KL Business School’s mission to bridge academic expertise with societal impact, ensuring that knowledge translates into meaningful change at organizational and community levels.

Looking ahead, KL Business School aims to expand such collaborations and continue nurturing capable leaders who can drive innovation, resilience, and sustainable development in both public and private sectors.
