

Algonax Industrial Visit with finance students on 21-08-2018

On August 21, 2018, finance students visited Algonax Industrial. The visit provided insights into the company's operations, financial management practices, and industrial processes. Students gained valuable exposure to real-world financial applications within an industrial setting, enhancing their understanding of the sector's economic dynamics and corporate finance strategies.

Some of the Pics

On August 21, 2018, Keerthana, along with finance students, visited an industrial site. The visit offered a hands-on experience in understanding the financial aspects of industrial operations. Students observed the practical application of financial concepts, enhancing their knowledge of finance within the industrial sector.

