Tips

- Apply before the deadline. Top universities have deadlines typically by the mid December
- Apply for scholarships (even a $1000 scholarship makes your profile look good during your VISA interview)
- Most of the times unofficial transcript is enough (email graduate studies office for clarification regarding this)
- Email your questions early
- Learn basic terminology (Fall semester intake – August/September, Spring semester intake – January/February intake)
- Take statement of purpose seriously- WE READ every line!! Sometimes your SOP gets you admitted even with slightly low scores

Where to apply

- Smart ways are to apply to universities near major industries or places with high prospective hiring after graduation.
- For example, take UTPB. Tuition is affordable and way less than other universities, enrollment is easy, high chances of internship and jobs after graduation. Drawbacks: Less funding and high cost of living.
- Weigh options
- Texas, Florida, Illinois,

Do you also consider giving Graduate assistantship programs as you admit students.
And if an international student wants the GA are applications different?
