KLEF Deemed to be university 10 Andhra Girls Battalion Jan Jathiya Samman event was conducted.

Description: -

The Jan Jathiya Samman day event was conducted by 10 Andhra girls battalion at kl university. This day is celebrated as the tribal people got freedom.

They got freedom after the tribal movement started by Mr. Tilak Manjhi in 1784. This movement was ended in 1856 by British.

So, we celebrated this day as Jan Jathiya Samman and we conducted Essay writing and Elocution among the cadets.

Tribal communities hold a deep connection to nature, reflected in their sustainable practices and harmonious way of life. They have contributed immensely to art, music, dance, and traditional knowledge systems, enriching the cultural fabric of the nation. Jan Jatiya Samman acknowledges these invaluable contributions and highlights the importance of preserving their legacy for future generations.

All the cadets gave their best in the competition and participated very well.
