SUPPORTED BY: Dr. B. SASIKALA, CTO NCC, KLEF

ATTENDED CADETS : 28

KLEF Deemed to be University 10 Andhra Girls Bn., NCC cadets have attended the event 14th August 2026.

Aim:

The aim of the event is to create awareness among citizens about the Har Ghar Tiranga initiative, encourage people to proudly display the National Flag at their homes, and promote respect and pride towards the Tricolour. The event also seeks to educate citizens about the meaning of the National Flag, its colours and Ashoka Chakra, and the importance of maintaining the dignity and honour of the National Flag.

Description:

The NCC cadets organized an awareness rally through the designated locality, carrying the National Flag and awareness placards and raising patriotic slogans to create enthusiasm among the citizens. During the rally, the cadets interacted with the public and explained the meaning and importance of the National Flag, emphasizing that the Tricolour represents the unity, pride, identity, and spirit of the nation. They also explained the significance of the three colours and the Ashoka Chakra and highlighted the importance of treating the National Flag with dignity and respect. As part of the awareness activity, the cadets distributed National Flags to citizens and encouraged them to proudly display the flags at their homes and spread the message of Har Ghar Tiranga among their family members, friends, and neighbours. The interaction with the public helped the cadets communicate the importance of national symbols and encouraged citizens to actively participate in the initiative. The rally created a positive and patriotic atmosphere, with citizens showing enthusiasm and interest in the programme. The activity also provided NCC cadets with an opportunity to demonstrate discipline, teamwork, leadership, and social responsibility while contributing to community awareness. Through their efforts, the cadets successfully carried the message of patriotism beyond the university campus and encouraged citizens to celebrate the spirit of the nation together.

Conclusion:

The Har Ghar Tiranga Awareness Rally served as an effective platform to spread awareness about the importance and dignity of the National Flag among citizens. The active participation of cadets and the distribution of flags encouraged people to proudly participate in the initiative. The event reinforced the message that the Tricolour represents the unity, pride, and spirit of India, and that every citizen has a responsibility to respect and honour the National Flag.

"Har Ghar Tiranga – Har Dil Tiranga! Jai Hind!"
