ATTENDED CADETS: 61

KLEF Deemed to be University 10 Andhra Girls Bn., NCC cadets have attended the event on 15th August 2026.

Aim:

The aim of this event was to create awareness among students about the harmful effects of ragging and to promote a safe, respectful, and supportive campus environment. The programme also aimed to educate students about the importance of discipline, mutual respect, responsibility, and maintaining a positive atmosphere within the institution.

Description:

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme was conducted on the eve of Independence Day to create awareness among students about the harmful effects of ragging and the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful campus environment. The programme highlighted the values of discipline, mutual respect, friendship, and responsible behaviour among senior and junior students.

The NCC cadets addressed students through awareness speeches and emphasized the importance of standing against ragging and supporting a ragging-free campus. The programme encouraged students to treat one another with dignity and contribute to a safe, disciplined, and inclusive college environment.

Through speeches and awareness activities, the NCC cadets conveyed the message that a ragging-free campus is a shared responsibility. The programme also connected the values of Independence Day with the responsibility of creating an environment where every student can learn and grow with freedom, dignity, and confidence.

The event concluded with a strong message encouraging all students to stand together against ragging and contribute towards building a safe, disciplined, and inclusive campus community.

Conclusion:

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme served as an important initiative to educate students about the negative consequences of ragging and the importance of maintaining discipline and mutual respect. The programme encouraged students to become responsible members of the college community and actively support a ragging-free campus.

The awareness campaign inspired the college community to take responsibility, support one another, and actively contribute to eliminating ragging.

NCC cadets and participants carried awareness placards, promoting discipline, unity, mutual respect, and a strong stand against ragging

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Rally was conducted to promote a safe, respectful, and supportive campus where every student can learn without fear or harassment.

The awareness campaign focused on preventing ragging by promoting responsible behaviour, mutual understanding, and a welcoming atmosphere among students.
