COMBINED ANNUAL TRAINING CAMP (CATC) – 2025

The Combined Annual Training Camp (CATC) – 2025 was successfully organized by 22(A) Battalion, NCC, Guntur Group at Bapatla Pharmacy College. The camp brought together NCC cadets from various institutions under one roof to undergo comprehensive military, physical, and leadership training.

The camp aimed to instill in cadets the core values of discipline, unity, and service to the nation. Over the duration of the camp, cadets participated in a wide range of activities including parade drills, weapon training, physical endurance sessions, map reading, tent pitching, and lectures on national integration and leadership.

The camp environment was vibrant with energy, teamwork, and dedication. Cadets were grouped under different companies, maintaining punctuality, order, and discipline throughout. Each day began with physical training and drill sessions followed by theory classes and group activities designed to strengthen leadership and character.

TRAINING AND ACTIVITIES

A structured timetable was followed throughout the camp to ensure holistic cadet development. The morning physical training (PT) sessions tested cadets' stamina and endurance, followed by drill practices that emphasized precision, uniformity, and synchronization.

Weapon training sessions familiarized cadets with the handling of rifles under the guidance of qualified PI staff. Map reading, field craft, first aid, and disaster management sessions were conducted to equip cadets with essential survival and leadership skills.

In addition to military training, the camp included social service activities, plantation drives, and awareness programs on topics such as "Fit India Movement" and "Swachh Bharat Abhiyan." Cultural evenings showcased the talent and unity of cadets from various regions, promoting harmony and teamwork.

ADDRESS BY CAMP COMMANDANT

The Camp Commandant, a senior officer of 22(A) Battalion NCC, addressed cadets during both the inaugural and closing ceremonies. In his address, he emphasized the significance of NCC training in shaping youth into responsible and disciplined citizens. He spoke about the importance of time management, teamwork, and selfless service, encouraging cadets to uphold the motto “Unity and Discipline.”

The Commandant also appreciated the excellent organization of the camp and commended the cadets for maintaining high standards of discipline, turnout, and enthusiasm. His interaction motivated cadets to pursue excellence in both academic and extracurricular spheres while embodying the ideals of national pride and leadership.

VISITS AND INTERACTIONS

The camp witnessed several visits and inspections by senior officers from the Guntur Group Headquarters. Their presence added motivation and inspiration to all participants. The Group Commander Sir interacted with cadets, inspecting their drills, line areas, and cultural preparations. He appreciated their confidence, teamwork, and dedication towards NCC ideals.

Interactive sessions were conducted where cadets raised questions about career opportunities in the armed forces, the significance of leadership, and the challenges of military life. Officers shared valuable insights and personal experiences, reinforcing the importance of perseverance, courage, and responsibility.

IMPACT ON CADETS

The camp had a profound impact on all participating cadets. Living together in a disciplined environment instilled in them a sense of responsibility, teamwork, and adaptability. The structured schedule taught them the value of punctuality, physical fitness, and cooperation.

For many, the experience was life-changing, as they developed new friendships and learned the importance of unity amidst diversity. The exposure to real military-style routines gave them a deeper respect for the armed forces and strengthened their resolve to serve the nation in their chosen fields.

The spirit of camaraderie and teamwork that developed during CATC–2025 will continue to guide these cadets in their academic and personal lives.

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE CAMP

The Combined Annual Training Camp (CATC) serves as the cornerstone of NCC’s experiential learning. CATC–2025 at Bapatla Pharmacy College was particularly significant as it successfully blended discipline, education, and leadership training under one framework.

It offered cadets not just physical and tactical training but also lessons in moral and civic responsibility. The camp reinforced that service to the nation extends beyond the uniform — it lies in one’s actions, honesty, and dedication in everyday life.

Through cultural programs, lectures, and competitions, cadets experienced the true spirit of the NCC, which aims to build future leaders with strong character, courage, and compassion.

CADET LEARNING AND TAKEAWAYS

The cadets returned from CATC–2025 with a renewed spirit of patriotism and confidence. They learned how teamwork, respect for authority, and mutual cooperation lead to collective success. Exposure to field activities and leadership roles helped them overcome hesitation and build decision-making skills.

Cadets also learned the importance of fitness, punctuality, and positive attitude in facing life’s challenges. The experiences gained during the camp — from drills to campfire nights — will remain cherished memories and guiding lessons throughout their NCC journey.

CONCLUSION

The Combined Annual Training Camp (CATC) – 2025, organized by 22(A) Battalion, Guntur Group, NCC, at Bapatla Pharmacy College, concluded successfully with enthusiastic participation and exceptional performance by all cadets. The camp achieved its objective of developing leadership qualities, discipline, and patriotism among young cadets.

The closing ceremony featured prize distribution for outstanding cadets in various activities such as drill, cultural performance, and turnout. The Camp Commandant, in his concluding remarks, expressed appreciation for the commitment and teamwork displayed by cadets and staff.

As the NCC flag was lowered and the camp concluded, the cadets departed with pride, discipline, and unforgettable experiences that strengthened their dedication to the NCC motto — “Unity and Discipline.”
