Medical Camp

NSS Volunteers of Dept of CSE of K L E F has Conducted “Medical Camp” on 11th October, 2018 in one of the village adopted by the K L University i.e. Chirravuru as a part of this NSS Volunteers from Unit- 7, program officer (P Yellamma)CEA Associate Dean Dr Ravindranath , P suresh and Kalish vali are involved.

On the day of the event, all the NSS volunteers, NSS program officer and four Members of the Advisory department along with 23 volunteers started from the college at 9.30 am in bus and reached the Chirravuru by 10.00 am.

Summary of Medical Camp

Blood Checkup: In Villages many people don't know respective blood groups, so we had taken the help of 4 B-Pharmacy students of our university to check the blood group of villagers. And the villagers might not have the good levels of hemoglobin. Our students verified their level of hemoglobin and given precautions if anyone has the low level of it.

Eye checkup: Doctors from Sky Health Foundation tested the eyes of villagers who had some problems regarding eyes. The doctors had given the medicines and eye drops bottle as per their problems. If it's a severe situation they insisted them to visit their clinic and they will do operation. Old persons may have the problem of cataract so it can be solved only by operation.

Heart related checkup: Two Cardiologists from NRI Hospital, Vijayawada participated in the camp and rendered their services. At first the Nurses tested the BP's of villagers and sent them to doctors. The doctors tested them and asked their problems while working (Asthma) or sleeping (snoring) or cough and cold problems. They had written medicines as per their problems. If they are severe issues like scanning, doctors said to visit their hospitals and assured that they will treat them. If they have the Arogya Sri card, they are treated freely.

All volunteers participated actively in talking with villagers, enquiring their problems and sending them to doctors in order without any disturbances.

“190 villagers came forward and got the solutions for their queries and problems”

The NSS Volunteers of the Department of CSE at K L E F took the lead in organizing a medical camp on 11th October 2018 in the village of Chirravuru, which was adopted by K L University. The camp aimed at providing healthcare services to the underprivileged community residing in the village. The volunteers from Unit-1 and 7, along with the program officer (P Yellamma), CEA Associate Dean Dr Ravindranath, P Suresh, and Kalish vali, actively participated in the event. The team provided a range of services, including general health check-up, medications, and consultations with specialist doctors. The medical camp included specialized services, such as eye check-up, dental check-up, and blood pressure check-up. The team was well-equipped with essential medical supplies, and they all had their responsibilities assigned to provide speedy medical attention to the patients
