Report on Child Nurture Program at Chiguru orphanage

As a part of NSS Activity through the EEE department for the month of august the first initiated activity took place at "CHIGURU" BalaBhavan, Venkatapalem. It is situated at the bank of krishna river 4km from the barrage with a pleasant environment. The children residential home has 40 + Children of age from 5 to 10 years, most of them were abandoned from parents and relatives. The CHIGURU home at most interest to nurture the preliminary skills to make them educational ready.

On 6th Aug 2019, EEE department students and staff reached the campus by 11am over a bus took plant and stationary needs for the children home, students collected their saved amount for donation of stationary like books 1 to 5th standard, drawing books, pencils chalk pieces etc. The home warden and Miss Kimari garu felt happy to see our students. Our student volunteers interacted with teachers and child responds some valuable time. Home caretakers expressed their interest in having us as mentors for activity-based work. We felt warm to see the happiness in children's faces. We expressed our willingness to plan activities for student knowledge improvement.
