Objective:

To give to enhance Pulse Polio awareness about the KLEF College of Pharmacy Unit-06 Team National Service Scheme (NSS) has Conducted Awareness on Pulse polio at Vaddeswaram Village on 18-02-2024 as part of Special Camp.

Description:

Pulse Polio is a vital public health initiative targeting children under five to eradicate poliomyelitis. Conducted through mass vaccination campaigns, the program delivers oral polio vaccine drops on designated Pulse Polio Days. Public awareness campaigns utilize diverse media to stress vaccine safety and efficacy. Community engagement, government support, and global cooperation bolster the initiative. Government-led, the program is part of global efforts for polio eradication. Monitoring mechanisms assess vaccination coverage, enabling corrective actions. Pulse Polio strives to create a polio-free world through widespread immunization and public participation.

Procedure of the Event:

1. The KLEF team made stops at various locations within Vaddeswaram Village.
2. Launching the "Awareness on Pulse Polio" initiative, the team commenced by explaining the importance and objectives of pulse polio immunization to residents and passersby.
3. Identifying prevalent concerns related to pulse polio, the team shared crucial information directly with the villagers present at each stop.
4. Engaging drivers, pedestrians, and other community members, discussions centered on different aspects of pulse polio vaccination and its benefits.
5. KLEF team volunteers conducted interactive sessions at each stop, addressing queries and providing insights into the significance of pulse polio immunization.

6. The village-wide event concluded with participants gaining a comprehensive understanding of pulse polio, actively contributing to the promotion of immunization for a healthier Vaddeswaram Village.

Outcome:

1. The event effectively heightened awareness about pulse polio immunization among the residents of Vaddeswaram Village.
2. The KLEF team efficiently executed the program, ensuring the primary objective of promoting pulse polio awareness was achieved.
3. Volunteers exhibited professionalism and approachability throughout the pulse polio awareness initiative in the village.
4. Vaddeswaram Village residents actively participated, expressing their thoughts and concerns regarding pulse polio.
5. A substantial number of villagers attentively listened as students elucidated various aspects of pulse polio vaccination, and the students actively engaged in the event.

Overall, the Awareness on Pulse Polio program conducted by the KLEF team at Vaddeswaram Village on 18th February 2024 successfully concluded, contributing significantly to raising awareness on pulse polio immunization.
