Objective:

The objective of raising awareness about dehydration among school students is to educate them on recognizing the signs and symptoms of dehydration, emphasize the importance of regular water intake for overall health, and encourage healthy hydration habits to enhance their physical and cognitive performance.

Description:

On February 27, 2024, the KL Deemed to be University's Department of AI&DS Unit-11 NSS wing conducted an awareness program on dehydration for government school students at Chirravuru Village as part of a special camp. The session, led by NSS Programme Officer Dr. Prabhavathi and NSS Programme Coordinator Mr. P. Srikanth Reddy, educated students on recognizing dehydration symptoms. The program also emphasized the importance of hydration for vulnerable groups such as the elderly, children, pregnant women, street vendors, and farmers to prevent sunstroke. Participants were advised to regularly consume coconut water, buttermilk, and lemon water, and to use umbrellas in emergency situations. Immediate medical attention was recommended for sunstroke cases. Dean of Student Affairs Dr. Ch. Hanumantha Rao, Advisors Dr. Habibulla Khan and Dr. KRS. Prasad, along with NSS Coordinator Mr. P. Suresh and Student Mentor Mr. G. Chandrasekhar, coordinated the event and commended the volunteers for their participation.

Outcome:

The awareness event successfully educated school students and the local community on the importance of proper hydration and recognizing dehydration symptoms. It emphasized practical measures to prevent sunstroke, such as consuming hydrating beverages and using umbrellas. The program fostered a proactive approach to health, particularly among vulnerable groups like the elderly, children, and pregnant women.

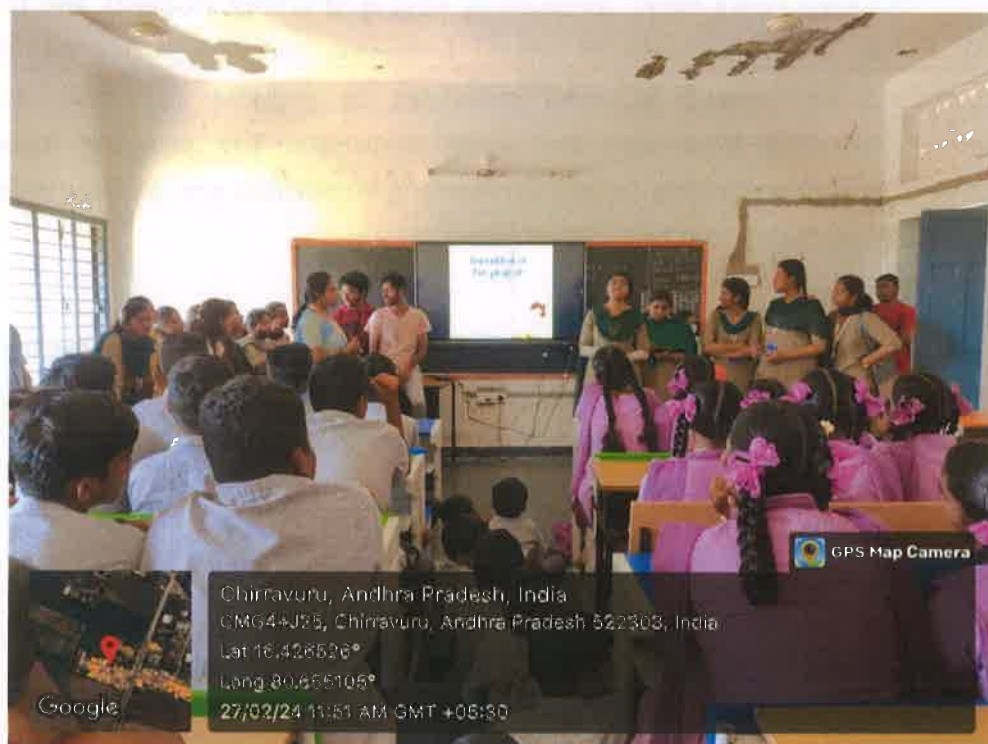

Impact on Society:

The event raised crucial health awareness, promoting hydration and sunstroke prevention among students and the local community. It empowered individuals, especially vulnerable groups, with knowledge to safeguard their health, fostering a more informed and healthier society.
