Objective:

To give enhance Swachhata Hi Seva (Gandhi Jayanti), Koneru Lakshmaiah Educational Foundation National Service Scheme (NSS) has conducted Swachhata in Tadepalli village, in the form of NSS activities on 1-10-2023, As part of College of Central NSS Special Camp.

Description:

Swachhata Hi Seva (Gandhi Jayanti) is a nationwide cleanliness movement in India that takes place annually from September 15 to October 2, culminating on the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, a prominent advocate for sanitation and hygiene. The campaign aims to honor Gandhi's vision of a clean India and emphasizes the importance of "swachhata" (cleanliness) as a service to the nation.

Key aspects of Swachhata Hi Seva (Gandhi Jayanti) include:

- Mass participation: The campaign encourages citizens, community organizations, and government institutions to come together and participate in various cleaning activities in public spaces, including beaches, parks, and historical sites.
- Shramdaan (voluntary labor): Hon"ble Prime Minister Sri. Narendra Modi Ji has often appealed for citizens to contribute at least one hour of shramdaan for swachhata during the campaign period, highlighting the importance of individual responsibility and collective action.
- Waste management: Swachhata Hi Seva emphasizes the importance of proper waste segregation, disposal, and recycling to promote sustainable practices and reduce environmental pollution.
- Hygiene awareness: The campaign focuses on raising awareness about personal hygiene, sanitation, and the need for clean surroundings to prevent diseases and improve public health.
- Engagement with leaders: Political leaders, celebrities, and other public figures often participate in Swachhata Hi Seva activities to inspire others to join the movement and demonstrate their commitment to a cleaner India.
- Recognition and awards: The government acknowledges and rewards individuals, organizations, and local bodies that have made significant contributions to the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan (Clean India Mission) through awards such as the Swachh Bharat Puraskar.

Procedure of the Event:

1. The KLEF Students, Faculty and Participants arrived at Tadepalli.
2. The students, faculty and participants gather at Tadepalli village, showing their support for the cause.
3. Planning and coordination: The government and local authorities plan the campaign, set objectives, and allocate resources. They may collaborate with schools, colleges, NGOs, and community organizations to ensure widespread participation.

4. Awareness generation: Organizers spread awareness about the campaign through various channels like social media, posters, and local events. They emphasize the importance of cleanliness, hygiene, and environmental protection.
5. Pledge-taking: Participants take a pledge to contribute to the cleanliness drive and uphold the principles of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan throughout the year.
6. Cleanliness activities: Participants engage in various cleaning activities such as street cleaning, waste collection and segregation, tree plantation, and public sanitation drives. These activities take place in various locations like schools, public parks, beaches, and historical sites.

Outcome:

The Swachhata Hi Seva (Gandhi Jayanti) campaign has led to several positive outcomes and contributed to the larger goal of a cleaner, more hygienic India. Some of the key outcomes include:

- Increased public awareness: The campaign has successfully raised awareness about the importance of cleanliness, sanitation, and hygiene among citizens, fostering a sense of responsibility towards maintaining clean surroundings.
- Enhanced civic engagement: By encouraging mass participation, the campaign has inspired citizens to actively engage in cleaning activities and contribute to their communities' well-being.
- Cleaner public spaces: The campaign has resulted in cleaner public spaces, including beaches, parks, streets, and historical sites, enhancing the overall aesthetic appeal, and promoting tourism.
- Improved waste management practices: Swachhata Hi Seva has encouraged better waste segregation, disposal, and recycling practices, contributing to more sustainable and environmentally friendly communities.
- Strengthened social cohesion: The campaign has brought people from diverse backgrounds together to work towards a common goal, fostering a sense of unity and social cohesion.
- Healthier communities: By promoting cleanliness and hygiene, the campaign has helped reduce the incidence of diseases and improved public health outcomes.
- Institutional engagement: Schools, colleges, NGOs, and community organizations have actively participated in the campaign, strengthening institutional engagement in cleanliness and sanitation initiatives.
- Policy impact: The success of Swachhata Hi Seva has influenced policy decisions and encouraged the government to invest more in sanitation infrastructure and waste management solutions.
- Promotion of Gandhian values: The campaign has reinforced the importance of Gandhian values, such as selflessness, social responsibility, and environmental stewardship, inspiring citizens to adopt these principles in their daily lives.

Overall, the Swachhata Hi Seva (Gandhi Jayanti) conducted by the KLEF College of Central team NSS at Tadepalli on 10-10-2023 as part of Special Camp successfully the students completed the program by raising Swachhata Hi Seva (Gandhi Jayanti)
